NCAA Infractions Report

In July of 2011, the National College Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Committee on Infractions found the Georgia Institute of Technology men's basketball and football programs have committed violations of NCAA regulations.

The Institute was cited for a lack of cooperation during the investigation, a failure to meet the conditions and obligations of membership and preferential treatment violations.

There were additional violations in the men's basketball program related to rules stemming from a nonscholastic basketball tournament conducted on the Institute's campus, which the public report further details.

"Georgia Tech is committed to the integrity of its athletics program, including full cooperation and support of the NCAA," said Georgia Tech President G.P. "Bud" Peterson. "Given the information we had at the time, I believe we took reasonable and appropriate steps to determine the proper course of action and acted in good faith. Looking back, there are things we could have done differently. Because of our unwavering commitment to NCAA compliance, we have already taken a number of steps to address perceived shortcomings, hopefully ensuring that our programs remain beyond reproach."

After being notified of the allegations in November 2009, Georgia Tech conducted its own internal investigation, forming a committee made up of faculty, staff and external counsel that made recommendations based on available information and the internal investigation findings.

As a result of this exhaustive review process and because of Georgia Tech's steadfast commitment to compliance, the Institute completely revamped and enhanced its athletic compliance operation and staffing. Changes include a greater investment in experienced staff, training and awareness among staff and student athletes.

Penalties include:

- Public reprimand and censure.
- Four years of probation from July 14, 2011, through July 13, 2015. The report further details this probation.
- A $100,000 financial penalty.
- A reduction of two men's basketball recruiting days during the 2011 summer evaluation period (self-imposed by the Institute).
- A limit to 10 official visits for men's basketball for the 2011-12 and 2012-2013 academic years.
- A vacation of all contests won by the football team during the 2009 season after November 24, which is when the university was alerted to the potential eligibility issues.

Credentials

Credentials for Georgia Tech home football games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Requests are honored from sports editors of daily newspapers, network affiliate television station sports directors, and websites that have a corresponding publication and/or affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity.

Requests from non-daily newspapers, periodicals, radio stations and non-affiliated websites or blogs will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Credentials will not be mailed, but can be shipped if a FedEx number is provided and time permits. Otherwise, credentials will be left at Media Will Call, which is located at the main ticket office on the north end of Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Requests can be directed to Mike Stamus (mstamus@athletics.gatech.edu).

Media Will Call

Georgia Tech Ticket Office, corner of Techwood Drive and Bobby Dodd Way.

Media Parking

A limited number of media parking spaces at various lots on campus are available. Please include parking requests along with credential requests. Parking passes will be e-mailed.

Road Credentials

If you would like to cover Georgia Tech on the road, please let Mike DeGeorge know well in advance and a credential request will be made for you.

The Press Box

Located in the west stands of Bobby Dodd Stadium, accessible via Gate 1 or Gate 4. Take the press elevator to Level 4.

Wireless

Wireless internet access is available in the press-box. Log-in information is available on seating cards and is posted in the press box.

Live Statistics

Live stats (Gametracker) available via RamblinWreck.com, and via secured media website. Information posted in the press box.

Media Meals

Complimentary meals are available to credentialed media. Following each game, pizza will be available to media members.

Weekly Press Conference

Paul Johnson will meet with the media, generally on Tuesday beginning at 11:30 a.m. There will be no press conferences the weeks of Tech's open dates.

Johnson's weekly press conferences are held in the Goldsmith Conference Room (located in the Edge Building). No players will be available at that time. Media are welcome to dine in the GTAA dining hall following the press conference.

Paul Johnson's Interviews

Head Coach Paul Johnson is available to the media at the following times:

- Following every practice on Mondays and Wednesdays.
- Following every game.
- Weekly press conferences (see above).
- Weekly ACC Coaches Teleconference, every Wednesday (see schedule at right).
- All other interviews should be requested to Mike DeGeorge at least 24 hours in advance. Most of these interviews will take place between 1 and 2 p.m.

Player Interviews

Yellow Jacket players are available after every practice on Mondays and Tuesdays. All player requests must be made to Mike DeGeorge before practice concludes. Players who do not practice will not be available. Players are also available after every game upon request.

All other player interview requests should be directed to Mike DeGeorge.

Covering Practices

Practices during the season are closed, although the first 20-30 minutes Monday-Wednesday are open to television media wanting to shoot video. If planning to shoot video, please let Mike DeGeorge know in advance.

Post-Practice Interviews

Paul Johnson and requested players will meet with the media on Callaway Plaza, located on the north side of Bobby Dodd Stadium, at the conclusion of practice.

Postgame Interviews

Following home games, Paul Johnson and selected players are available in the Edge Center museum following a cooling-down period. The visiting team will hold its press conference on the south end of the stadium, in the Georgia Tech weight room.

Following road games, Johnson and requested players will be available following a cooling-down period at a site determined by the home team. Please make your requests for Yellow Jacket players to Mike DeGeorge prior to the conclusion of the game.

NFL Scouts

NFL scouts can receive credentials and access to the pressbox. The written (or e-mail) request must be made at least two weeks in advance to Mike Stamus (mstamus@athletics.gatech.edu). No parking pass is provided to scouts. Seats are assigned on a space-available basis, and access to the field during team warm-ups is permitted.

Directions To Bobby Dodd Stadium

- From I-85 North or Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport: Get on I-85 North for 12 miles. Exit on 10th Street. Go left to Fowler Street and take a left.
- From I-85 South: Go South to North Avenue/Georgia Tech exit, take right onto North Avenue.

Georgia Tech/IMG Sports Radio Network

Brandon Gaudin begins his second year as the Voice of the Yellow Jackets, handling the radio play-by-play call for all Georgia Tech football and men's basketball games.

Roddy Jones, the former Yellow Jacket running back, embarks on his first season as color analyst.

Randy Waters will continue to serve as the sideline reporter in football season and the color analyst in basketball season.

Miller Pope is the producer for the majority of Georgia Tech radio broadcasts.

Pregame coverage begins two hours before kickoff with "Yellow Jacket Countdown," featuring game previews, live guests and former players and continues to live play-by-play for the next four hours.

BOBBY DODD STADIUM

Georgia Tech's storied football facility has been a cornerstone of college football for 100 years. Cozily nestled amid Atlanta's skyscrapers, Bobby Dodd Stadium at Historic Grant Field is easily one of the nation's most unique settings for college football.

Originally built in 1913 by members of the Georgia Tech student body, Bobby Dodd Stadium at Historic Grant Field is the oldest on-campus stadium in NCAA Division I-A (FBS).

Last fall, during the 2013 season, Georgia Tech celebrated the 100th anniversary of Grant Field.

Georgia Tech's football facility was known as Grant Field until April of 1988, when the Georgia State Board of Regents voted to add the name Bobby Dodd Stadium in honor of the legendary coach who guided the Rambling Wreck to its most illustrious football era. A member of the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, Dodd compiled a 165-64-8 record from 1945-66, and tutored 21 All-Americans as he led Tech to 13 bowl trips during his 22-year stay as head coach. Dodd served as Tech's director of athletics from 1951-76 and then worked as a consultant for the alumni association until his death in 1988 for a 57-year association with the Institute.

The name change was the first for the facility since it was named Hugh Inman Grant Field in 1914 after a gift from John W. Grant, a member of the Tech Board of Trustees and a well-known Atlanta merchant. The Grant family did not give the land on which Grant Field is built. However, they did give the initial $15,000 used in 1913 to build the first permanent concrete stands on the west side of the field. In gratitude for the gift, the Board of Trustees named the field Hugh Inman Grant Field in memory of Grant's deceased son.

The students who built Grant Field more than 100 years ago wouldn't recognize the home of Georgia Tech football if they saw it now. Not only has the skyline around the stadium changed dramatically, but the facility has steadily grown and improved during its rich history.

Tech actually began playing football on this site in 1905, but in 1913, the original concrete West Stands were largely built by Tech students and seated 5,600. The concrete East Stands were completed in time for the 1924 season. A year later, the South Stands were finished, bringing the seating capacity to approximately 30,000.

In 1947, the West Stands were rebuilt, which raised the capacity to 40,000, and a new press box was added. The North Stands were erected in 1958 to bring the seating to 44,105. A second deck was added to the East side in 1962, increasing capacity to 53,300. The facility was expanded again in 1967, when the West Stands were double-decked to bring capacity to 58,121. That project also included new press and photo levels, including an elevator.

Following the 1985 season, the historic South Stands, which formed the familiar U-shape on North Avenue, were razed. In their place is the William C. Wardlaw Center, a multi-purpose facility for Georgia Tech's athletic and academic departments that was opened in 1988. Seating capacity was reduced to 46,000.

A major renovation was completed prior to the 1992 season with the construction of the Bill Moore Student Success Center behind the West Stands, as well as the addition of 32 executive suites, the renovation of the President's Box and press level and the addition of the Roy Richards Festival concourse area under the West Stands.

Natural grass returned to Grant Field in 1995 after 24 seasons with artificial turf. The field was originally surfaced with Astroturf in 1971 and resurfaced in 1979, and then new artificial All-Pro Turf was installed in 1988.

The venerable stadium added another chapter to its storied history with a new look and an expanded capacity in 2003 when a two-year expansion and renovation raised capacity to 55,000 seats and added numerous amenities. The $75 million endeavor included the expansion and renovation of Bobby Dodd Stadium/Grant Field and the rebuilt Russ Chandler Stadium, Tech's 4,157-seat baseball facility.

The focal point of the project was the north end zone structure, which seats 15,678 in two levels and also includes 10 luxury suites and the Howard Ector Letterwinners Lounge. The complex also features the 7,000-square foot Kim King Football Locker Room, a 3,300-square foot players' lounge, the Jones Media Room, and coaches' offices that overlook Grant Field.

In addition to the rebuilt seating area, the lower east structure features 20 executive suites as well as 2,040 chair-backed club seats between the 25-yard lines and a private air-conditioned lounge for those patrons.

At the south end of Bobby Dodd Stadium, 2,970 seats were added in front of the Wardlaw Building, providing seating in the south end zone for the first time since 1985. The south end zone seating and the lower levels of the east and north stands form a three-sided bowl.

Construction began following the 2001 season, with the first phase completed for the 2002 season, when capacity was 43,719. The first phase saw the completion of the lower bowl seating in the south, east and north areas of the stadium.

A new natural grass playing surface and drainage system was installed, and the field was shifted approximately 30 feet to the north and 15 feet to the west. Program management was provided by Carter/Turner, a joint venture of Carter & Associates and Turner Construction, while HOK Sport was the project's architect.

Bobby Dodd Stadium/Grant Field is located at the heart of the Georgia Tech campus on Techwood Drive, bordered by North Avenue on the south and Bobby Dodd Way on the north.

Tech has hosted numerous crowds which have exceeded capacity, the largest of which was the 60,316 spectators for the Georgia game in 1973.

Georgia Tech continues to make improvements to the facility on a yearly basis. A new, larger video board and ribbon boards were installed just in time for the start of the 2009 season. Renovations were also done in 2009 on the Festival level of the west side and throughout the stadium.

In the 100 autumns since Grant Field was erected, legends from Clint Castleberry to George Morris to Joe Hamilton to Calvin Johnson have played here, and Paul Johnson joins coaching giants such as John Heisman and Bobby Dodd in patrolling the Grant Field sideline.

Four national title teams and 15 conference champions have showcased their skills on the Flats, and Grant Field was the site of one of the most famous games ever played, Tech's 222-0 win over Cumberland in 1916.

Today's Bobby Dodd Stadium seats 55,000 fans in a modern, comfortable facility that embraces the tradition that has made Tech's venerable stadium a cornerstone of college football for a century.

HOME OF THE YELLOW JACKETS SINCE 1913

"Here's the exception to the Atlanta rule: One sporting venue that has stood the test of time.

And the memory of Dodd, coaching his clinical and cerebral Jackets while remaining seated at a card table on the sideline, is one of the enduring images of Atlanta sports."

The tradition of Yellow Jacket Alley dates to 1996 when various alumni groups were looking for a way to greet GT football players as they arrived from their hotel to the stadium on game day.

Two and a half hours before kickoff, fans line Brittain Drive as they anticipate the arrival of their Yellow Jackets. The team exits its buses on the corner of 4th Street and Brittain Drive and follows the band, the Rambling Wreck and the cheerleaders through Yellow Jacket Alley and into Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Options All Around

Everybody laughed when Paul Johnson brought his flexbone offense to Georgia Tech. Now the Yellow Jackets are running defenses ragged and sitting at No. 7 in the BCS | BY ALBERT CHEN

RAMBLIN' THREATS Reddell (with ball) runs a triple-option offense loaded with playmakers who can score from anywhere, including (opposite, from left) Allen, Thomas and Dwyer.

Paul Johnson is a dour-faced, no-nonsense 52-year-old football coach who likes to cut to the chase. "You familiar with the triple option?" Johnson asked Anthony Allen, the young visitor in his modest office at Bobby Dodd Stadium in Atlanta one day in the spring of 2008. Allen, a talented running back who was planning to transfer from Louisville, was on a recruiting trip to Georgia Tech. But like many football players already on campus, Allen wasn't quite sure what to make of Johnson, the school's incoming coach, a man who over his long career had been called everything from an innova-

PLAYING IN THE NATION'S EIGHTH-LARGEST MEDIA MARKET HAS ADVANTAGES

• The Yellow Jackets have played in at least one ESPN nationally-televised, prime-time game for 22 consecutive seasons, from 1993 through 2013.

• Tech has played in an ESPN Thursday night game 27 times overall since 1991, including two in 2013.

• Entering the 2014 season, Georgia Tech has played in 66 consecutive games televised nationally, regionally or on ESPN3.

TNT's NBA studios are walking distance from Georgia Tech's campus, and Shaq Mason took advantage by visiting the NBA on TNT set and meeting Mason's namesake, Shaquille O'Neal, and presenting him a Tech Football jersey.

In 2014, Georgia Tech was ranked #7 among public universities in the country by U.S. News & World Report.

Georgia Tech is consistently rated among the top universities in the nation for graduation of underrepresented minorities in engineering, computer science, and mathematics.

Eight of the undergraduate engineering programs – and all 11 graduate engineering programs – are in the top 10.

Any way you crunch the numbers, Georgia Tech has one of the top Return On Investments (ROIs) in the nation.

Upon graduation, approximately 70 percent of Tech students have already accepted a job or been accepted to graduate school.

A LOOK AT 2014

Georgia Tech doesn't put much stock in preseason predictions, nor should it.

Over the last six seasons -- or since head coach Paul Johnson arrived in Atlanta -- no team in the ACC has exceeded preseason expectations more than the Yellow Jackets.

Over the last six seasons, Tech has finished first or tied for first in the ACC's Coastal Division four times and it has never finished lower than third.

The Yellow Jackets will likely be ranked low in the preseason rankings once again this year. Some early polls have Georgia Tech ranked as low as sixth (out of seven) in the Coastal Division.

The preseason prognosticators point to the numbers: 12 starters lost (six on offense, six on defense) including three on the offensive line, the loss of the school's all-time leader in sacks (Jeremiah Attaochu) and the departure of one of the most versatile defensive backs in recent Tech history (Jemea Thomas).

They'll also make a big deal out of Tech's starting quarterback from a year ago, Vad Lee, transferring to James Madison.

Down on the Flats, however, there is a quiet confidence brewing.

On offense, the Yellow Jackets want to get back to being efficient in the option game. On defense, Tech will use the 4-2-5 as its base defense.

MISLEADING NUMBERS

Officially, Georgia Tech returns just 11 starters from a team that finished 7-6 in 2013, 5-3 in the Coastal (tied for second) and played in the Music City Bowl.

Those numbers -- the returning starters and last year's won-loss record -- are both somewhat misleading. Consider:

■ While only 11 players who started at least seven games last season return, there are 23 players on the roster with starting experience.

■ The offensive line, which took a hit because of graduation, will be anchored by senior Shaquille Mason, a first-team All-ACC selection last season and an All-American candidate in 2014.

■ While the starting quarterback transferred, Johnson and the Tech coaching staff are excited about sophomore Justin Thomas, who may very well be the quickest quarterback in the nation, and junior back-up Tim Byerly, who had an outstanding spring.

■ Eight players, including some who will start this season, missed most or all of the 2013 season with injuries. Seven of those eight players were healthy enough to participate in spring practice.

■ Tech's signing class of 22 players, considered its deepest and most talented in years, includes four players who enrolled in January and took part in spring drills.

■ One member of the Signing Class -- defensive end Kenderius Whitehead -- is actually a transfer from NC State via Georgia Military College who has three years of eligibility remaining.

■ While Tech loses senior starting punter Sean Poole, it returns another scholarship punter, sophomore Ryan Rodwell, who redshirted in 2013.

To say Tech was a few plays away from winning 10 games is not hyperbole. The Jackets lost in double-overtime to rival Georgia, had the ball with a chance to tie or take the lead against Virginia Tech, led Miami 17-0 and trailed just 24-23 in the fourth quarter, and had the ball with a chance to tie late in the game against Ole Miss in the Music City Bowl.

BIGGEST SHOES TO FILL

With respect to the other 18 letterwinners not returning this fall, Georgia Tech's two biggest individual departures are likely defensive end Jeremiah Attaochu and defensive back Jemea Thomas.

Attaochu broke the school record and finished fifth in ACC history for career sacks (31.5). Replacing Attaochu's pass-rush ability this fall will be a challenge.

Thomas tied for the school record for career games played (54) while playing every position in the secondary.

Both were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft, along

Senior linebacker Quayshawn Nealy

with linebacker Brandon Watts.

Attaochu is one of three starters gone from the defensive line, joining end Emmanuel Dieke and tackle Euclid Cummings. Those three combined to play in 141 career games and made great strides under defensive coordinator Ted Roof.

Along with Thomas, cornerback Louis Young is also gone from an otherwise young secondary.

Watts, arguably Tech's quickest linebacker, is the other starter lost on defense.

On the offensive line, Tech lost center Jay Finch, honorable mention All-ACC Will Jackson and Ray Beno. That trio combined to play in 137 career games.

Also gone on offense are Robert Godhigh, the 5-7 dynamo who was Tech's best big-play threat in 2013, and B-back David Sims, who rushed for more than 2,200 career yards and finished his career ranked 11th in Tech rushing history.

THE NOT-SO-NEW FACES

Injuries took a toll on the 2013 version of the Yellow Jackets, but it also afforded some younger players to gain valuable experience.

The good news for Tech is that seven players who missed most or all of last season with injuries are back in the fold, healthy and ready to go.

Senior Isaiah Johnson and junior Jamal Golden would have likely been the starting duo at safety last season. Johnson, however, sat out the entire season to fully recover from a knee injury (he was cleared to play early in the 2013 season but opted to sit out). Golden, who was one of the nation's leading kick and punt returners in 2012, suffered a shoulder injury early last fall and did not return.

Roderick Rook-Chungong, a member of the 2012 Signing Day class, redshirted in '12 and sat out all of '13 with an injury. He'll be full-go this fall. Anthony Autry, a smooth and skilled wide receiver who played well as a true freshman in 2012, missed all of last year with a knee injury.

Two offensive linemen -- sophomore center Freddie Burden and junior tackle Errin Joe -- were sidelined most of last season with injuries.

Sophomore Travin Henry, who battled injuries most of 2012, is back, and has moved from wide receiver to defensive end.

Also back this fall after missing significant action last season with injury is junior long snapper Sean Tobin.

WHO RETURNS IN '14

Quarterback -- Redshirt sophomore Justin Thomas enters the fall as the leading candidate to start. The speedy Thomas saw action in 10 games last season, averaging 7.1 yards per carry while completing 9-of-17 passes for 131 yards.

Junior Tim Byerly, who played sparingly last season after transferring from Middle Tennessee State, will push Thomas and give the Yellow Jackets depth under center.

True freshman Matthew Jordan gained valuable experience by enrolling in January and participating in spring drills.

B-Back -- The top back-up the last two seasons -- senior Zach Laskey, who led Tech in rushing in 2012 and has amassed more than 1,100 career rushing yards -- has the most experience. Laskey enters the fall as the clear starter.

Senior Matt Connors has been a steady reserve the last three seasons and true freshman Christopher Leggett will get a look at either B-back or A-back in August.

A-Back -- There are a half-dozen players with significant experience returning, making it one of the deepest position groups on the team. The only loss -- Robert Godhigh -- was a big one, however. The 5-7 Godhigh rushed for more than 1,000 career yards and was one of the ACC's top big-play threats.

Senior Synjyn Days, whose blocking skills have improved greatly, is a returning starter. Four other seniors -- Deon Hill, B.J. Bostic, Charles Perkins and Tony Zenon -- all bring something to the table. Junior Broderick Snoddy, the fastest player on the team, moves over from B-back to use his skills in space. Sophomore Dennis Andrews has a shot at earning a starting job. Highly-touted newcomer Myles Autry and his high school teammate, Clinton Lynch, arrive in August.

Wide Receiver -- This may be the deepest Georgia Tech has been at wide receiver since Paul Johnson's arrival in 2008. Both starters -- senior DeAndre Smelter and sophomore Micheal Summers -- are back in the fold. Senior Darren Waller, who is suspended for the first two games of 2014, is the most experienced of the bunch with 38 career games played and more than 500 receiving yards. Anthony Autry, who played well as a true freshman in 2012 before being sidelined with a knee injury in 2013, will compete for a starting role.

Senior Corey Dennis also returns, and Antonio Messick and Ricky Jeune both redshirted last year.

Offensive Line -- Even though three key starters have departed, the Jacket O-line cupboard is far from bare. In addition, Tech signed six offensive linemen on Signing Day.

The leader of the bunch is senior guard Shaquille Mason, a first-team All-ACC selection last season and a potential All-American. Mason enters his third season as a starter.

Junior guard Trey Braun and junior tackle Bryan Chamberlain are both returning starters as well. Look for redshirt freshman Chris Griffin to earn the starting nod at left tackle.

At center, expect sophomore Freddie Burden and Thomas O'Reilly to compete for the starting job. Burden, who enters the fall as the leading candidate to start at center, is a promising talent who sat out all of 2013 with a knee injury suffered last August. O'Reilly was a back-up to Jay Finch last season.

Junior tackle Errin Joe hopes to be healthy after missing almost all of 2013 with injuries. Sophomore Nick Brigham, a Maryland transfer, played significant snaps last fall. Big Shamire Devine, 6-7, 370, redshirted last season and will begin the fall as the top back-up at left guard.

Defensive Line -- Four players -- Attaochu, Dieke, Cummings and rising junior Adam Gotsis -- started every game last season. Three-fourths of that line has graduated, leaving Gotsis, the Australia native, as the centerpiece. The tackle ranked second on the team behind Attaochu in tackles for loss (14.5) and sacks (5.5), and he blocked two kicks against Ole Miss in the Music City Bowl.

There will be two new starters at defensive end and both positions are fairly wide open entering August. True freshman KeShun Freeman is coming off an impressive spring. Sophomore Tyler Stargel, while he didn't pile up a ton of statistics last fall, gained a great deal of experience.

Sophomore Roderick Rook-Chungong, who sat out all of 2013 with an injury, will compete for playing time along with senior Nick Menocal. Sophomore Travin Henry moves to defensive end this fall after playing wide receiver the previous two seasons.

The x-factor is sophomore Kenderius Whitehead, a transfer from Georgia Military College who originally signed with NC State. Whitehead has a solid opportunity to start right away.

Linebacker -- Senior Quayshawn Nealy is the leader of the group and one of the top linebackers in the ACC. Nealy tied for second on the team with 66 tackles to go with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries last season.

Junior Tyler Marcordes, who has played significant snaps each of the last two seasons, and sophomore Paul Davis, who was impressive last year as a true freshman, will battle for the other starting linebacker job.

Junior Anthony Harrell, who played exceptional football before a knee injury midway through the 2013 season, missed the spring to recover but is expected to be a contributor. Sophomore Beau Hankins and senior Tremayne McNair have experience as well.

Secondary -- The Yellow Jackets will use five defensive backs in their base defense this season.

At strong safety, Tech is in good hands. Senior Isaiah Johnson, a three-year starter who sat out all of last season with a knee injury, is healthy again. Redshirt freshman John Marvin enters the fall as the top back-up.

Jamal Golden, who was injured in the third game of the 2013 season, is the leader at free safety. Redshirt freshman Corey Griffin is listed second on the depth chart.

At one cornerback, junior D.J. White is a returning starter. White started nine games last season and improved as the 2013 season progressed. Sophomore Lynn Griffin enters the fall as the leading candidate to start opposite White.

Chris Milton, who has played a number of positions the last two seasons, is in the mix at corner as is true freshman Step Durham, who enrolled in January.

The safety or nickel position will be manned by junior Demond Smith, who started the final 10 games of the '13 season, or junior Domonique Noble, who has played in 26 career games. Sophomore walk-on Zach Allen will also contribute.

Punter -- Gone is senior Sean Poole, who enjoyed his best season in 2013, but the Yellow Jackets should not miss a beat in '14. Ryan Rodwell, a scholarship player who played as a true freshman in 2012, redshirted 2013 and has three seasons of eligibility remaining.

Kicker -- Harrison Butker, who Paul Johnson thinks could be one of the nation's best kickers, was better than solid as a true freshman in 2013. He booted 10-of-14 field goals, 53-of-54 extra points -- his only miss on a bad snap at Miami -- and 30 of his 73 kickoffs were touchbacks. Butker booted a 54-yard field goal in the driving rain in Tech's spring game.

Long Snapper -- Scholarship junior Sean Tobin, who battled injuries while playing in nine games last season, gives Tech consistency at the long-snapper position. Trevor Stroebel is a sophomore walk-on who was forced into action last season following an injury to Tobin.

Returner -- In 2012, Golden was remarkable in the return game. He ranked in the top 10 nationally in both kick and punt returns, and he returned two kickoffs for touchdowns. Previously, the Yellow Jackets' last kick return for a TD came in 1998.

Five other returnees returned punts last season including senior DeAndre Smelter, who averaged 11.3 yards per attempt.

Smelter, Lynn Griffin, Dennis Andrews, Chris Milton and Broderick Snoddy all gained experience returning kickoffs last season.

CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

Home games against Orange Bowl champion Clemson, ACC Coastal Division champion Duke and division rivals Miami and Virginia, and road games at Georgia, Pittsburgh, Virginia Tech and North Carolina highlight Georgia Tech's 2014 football schedule.

"It's certainly a challenging schedule. Five of our six road games come against teams that played in bowl games last season and the home schedule is strong as well," head coach Paul Johnson said.

The Yellow Jackets, 7-6 overall and 5-3 in the ACC a year ago, open the season Aug. 30 against Wofford in Bobby Dodd Stadium. Georgia Tech opens ACC play on the road against Virginia Tech Sept. 20 in Blacksburg, Va.

Notes on the Yellow Jackets' 2014 schedule:

• Eight of Georgia Tech's 12 opponents played in bowl games last season. Two Yellow Jacket opponents - Clemson and Duke - were ranked in the final top 25 polls, and two other teams - Georgia and Miami - received votes for the final Coaches Poll.

Two-sport standout Broderick Snoddy

• Tech will play just six home games for the first time since 2010 after playing seven home contests each of the last three seasons.

• Georgia Tech will play every game on a Saturday for the first time since 1992.

• The Yellow Jackets will not play a Thursday night game for just the second time since 1993. Tech did not play on Thursday night in 2012, but the Jackets opened that season on a Monday (Labor Day) evening at Virginia Tech.

• Tech has two open dates for the second consecutive season.

• The Yellow Jackets will open ACC play on the road for the third consecutive year. Last year Tech kicked off league play at Duke, and in 2012 at Virginia Tech.

Senior wide receiver DeAndre Smelter

PAUL JOHNSON

@GTPaulJohnson
Head Coach
7th season at Tech
47-32 (.595) at Tech
18th season overall
154-71 (.684) overall
Western Carolina '79

Paul Johnson, who has led Georgia Tech to six consecutive bowl games and to two ACC Championship Game appearances while breaking records with his spread option offense, enters his seventh year with the Yellow Jackets and his 18th year overall as a head coach.

The only person ever named ACC Coach of the Year in his first two seasons in the league, Johnson has compiled a record of 47-32 in six seasons on the Flats. Johnson won more games in his first six seasons than any coach in Georgia Tech history.

In 17 years overall as a head coach, with previous stops at Georgia Southern and Navy, Johnson owns a career record of 154-71. Among active FBS coaches, Johnson ranks 12th in career victories and 12th in winning percentage (.684).

The mastermind behind Georgia Tech's high-octane spread option offense, Johnson's teams have ranked in the top six nationally in rushing offense each of the last six seasons. Since 2008, Georgia Tech has rushed for more yards than any team in college football. Over the past six seasons combined, the Yellow Jackets have rushed for more than 24,000 yards -- or the equivalent of 13.8 miles.

■ In his first two seasons at Tech, Johnson was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

■ In 2008, he was named National Coach of the Year by CBS Sports.

■ In 2009, the Jackets played in the ACC title game against Clemson (Tech won the game, but later vacated).

■ Tech played in a BCS bowl game for the first time in 2009.

■ Tech has averaged 7.8 wins per season under Johnson.

■ Tech led the nation in rushing in 2010 and finished second in 2011.

■ In 49 of Johnson's 79 games at Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets produced more than 400 yards of total offense.

■ Under Johnson, Tech produced four single-season 1,000-yard rushers -- Jonathan Dwyer in 2008, Dwyer and Joshua Nesbitt in 2009, and Anthony Allen in 2010.

■ Johnson has seen 15 of his players earn first-team All-ACC honors.

■ Tech has produced two first team All-Americans under Johnson -- Michael Johnson in 2008 and Derrick Morgan in 2009.

■ Since Johnson's arrival, a Tech player has been named ACC Offensive Player of the Year (Dwyer in 2008) and ACC Defensive Player of the Year (Morgan in 2009).

■ Johnson is 12-5 at Tech in games decided by five points or less.

■ Tech has scored more than 30 points in a game 39 times under Johnson and has a 33-6 record in those contests.

■ In 2009, Tech won in Tallahassee (Fla.) for the first time in school history, beat a top-five ranked team at home (Virginia Tech) for the first time since 1962, won on the road in Charlottesville (Va.) for the first time since 1990 and earned its highest national ranking (7th) since 1999.

■ In Johnson's six seasons, Tech has scored 18 non-offensive touchdowns (three each season).

■ Johnson is 6-2 in home games against top-25 opponents.

■ Under Johnson, Tech's Academic Progress Report (APR) scores have risen every year.

Last season Georgia Tech finished 7-6 overall, 5-3 in the ACC, beating eventual Coastal Division champion Duke for the 10th straight season and topping Coastal rival North Carolina for the fifth consecutive year. The Yellow Jackets recorded two shutouts -- 56-0 vs. ACC newcomer Syracuse and 70-0 vs. Elon -- the first time since 1985 that Tech pitched two shutouts in one season.

While Tech advanced to a bowl game for the 17th consecutive season, the Jackets were a play or two away from double-digit victories. Tech had the ball with a chance to tie or take the lead in the fourth quarter of losses to Virginia Tech, Miami and Georgia.

Tech finished ranked in the top 10 in eight different national statistical categories, including sixth in rushing offense.

In 2012, Georgia Tech struggled to a 2-4 start, which included a pair of heart-breaking overtime losses to ACC Coastal Division rivals Virginia Tech and Miami. But the Yellow Jackets turned it around the second half of the season, erupting for 68 points at North Carolina en route to winning four straight conference games. By the time the dust cleared in late November, Tech was crowned Coastal Division champion and played in the ACC Championship Game.

Statistically, the Yellow Jackets produced more yards of total offense and rushed for more yards than any team in school history, and averaged a school-record 40.0 points per game in conference play. The 7-7 season culminated with an upset win over Southern California, 21-7, in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

In 2011, Georgia Tech exceeded all expectations. After being picked to finish fourth in the ACC Coastal Division, the Yellow Jackets went 8-5, 5-3 in the ACC.

With just 10 scholarship seniors on the roster, Tech bolted to a 6-0 start, setting school, ACC and NCAA records for offense along the way, and rising to as high as 13th in the national polls. In October, the Jackets handed sixth-ranked and eventual ACC champion Clemson a 31-17 loss in Bobby Dodd Stadium, a win that eventually helped Tech earn a bid to the Sun Bowl.

In 2010, the Yellow Jackets -- who lost four juniors to the 2010 NFL Draft and played the final four games without injured quarterback Joshua Nesbitt -- finished 4-4 in the ACC and led the nation in rushing offense for the first time in school history. Two Yellow Jackets -- senior center Sean Bedford and senior running back Anthony Allen -- were named first team All-ACC in 2010.

The 2009 season was one of the most memorable in Yellow Jacket history despite fielding one of the youngest rosters in college football (just six scholarship seniors).

After a mid-September loss at nationally-ranked Miami when the Yellow Jackets played their third game in a 12-day span, Tech reeled off eight consecutive victories including a 5-0 record in October when it played four road games. A convincing 49-10 win at Duke on Nov. 14 clinched the ACC Coastal Division crown, then Tech defeated Clemson for a second time, this time in the ACC Championship Game in Tampa, Fla. That game was later vacated due to NCAA sanctions.

Tech, which reached a national ranking as high as seventh, played in the FedEx Orange Bowl, its first appearance in a major bowl game since 1962. Along the way, the Yellow Jackets rolled up mind-boggling numbers on offense, ranking second nationally in rushing offense (295.4 ypg) and third in time of possession (33:49).

Prior to the start of the 2008 season, Sports Illustrated projected Georgia Tech to finish 3-9 and the ACC media picked the Yellow Jackets to finish fourth in the Coastal Division. However, Johnson directed Tech to a 9-4 record, a share of the Coastal Division title and a Chick-fil-A Bowl berth. Johnson's first Yellow Jacket team beat three nationally-ranked opponents – Florida State, Miami and Georgia – over the final four games of the regular season. The win over Georgia snapped a seven-game losing streak to Tech's in-state rival.

Johnson's first season at Georgia Tech was remarkable for a number of reasons. Not only did he and his staff install completely new offensive and defensive schemes, but Johnson inherited one of the nation's youngest rosters, which included 76 freshmen and sophomores. The last one-third of the season, 16 of Tech's 22 starters were freshmen or sophomores. He also took over a program low in scholarship numbers, well below the maximum of 85, the lingering effects of distant NCAA penalties.

The 2008 team also suffered more than its share of injuries. Twelve opening-day starters combined to miss 31 games because of injuries. In a September road game at defending ACC champion Virginia Tech, the Jackets started a walk-on freshman at wide receiver. A few weeks later, Tech started its third-string quarterback as the result of injuries to starter Joshua Nesbitt and back-up Jaybo Shaw.

Almost as soon as Johnson was hired, the pundits questioned if Johnson's option-based spread offense would work on the BCS level. Those questions came even though Navy had racked up mind-numbing offensive numbers, leading the NCAA in rushing three straight years from 2005 to 2007, mostly against ACC and other BCS-level competition.

Johnson quieted those critics almost as soon as the 2008 season kicked off and certainly after Tech closed the regular season by combining for 86 points and 881 rushing yards in games against nationally-ranked Miami and Georgia. The Yellow Jackets, with freshmen and sophomores manning every skill position and behind a patch-work offensive line, averaged 273.2 rushing yards per game, ranking fourth nationally and first in the ACC. Georgia Tech also led the ACC in total offense (372.5 ypg).

Johnson enjoyed success as the head coach at Georgia Southern (1997-2001) and Navy (2002-2007) before being named Georgia Tech's 12th head coach on Dec. 12, 2007.

Johnson coached six years at Navy, where in 2007 the Midshipmen won a fifth straight Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, earned a postseason bowl bid for the fifth consecutive year and beat Notre Dame for the first time since 1963. Johnson was a finalist for the 2007 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year.

In six seasons at Navy, Johnson compiled a record of 45-29.

Johnson took over a Navy program that was coming off the worst two-year span in its 123-year history (1-20) and had recorded just two winning seasons in the last 20 years. After a 2-10 mark in Johnson's first year, Johnson brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 43-19 (.694) record over his last four-plus years.

Johnson dominated the other two Service Academies like no other coach in the school's annals, posting an 11-1 (.917) overall record, including a perfect 6-0 mark against rival Army. His 2007 senior class was the first in school history to post a perfect 8-0 mark against Army and Air Force.

Johnson's Navy teams improved as each season progressed. Over his last five years, Navy posted a 13-2 (.867) record over the final three games of the season and outscored the opposition 611-335 in those contests.

The Midshipmen led the nation in rushing in 2007 for an unprecedented third consecutive year, producing more than 350 yards per game. Under Johnson, Navy never finished lower than third nationally in rushing offense. Navy ranked among the nation's highest-scoring teams in 2007, averaging 39.92 points per outing. The 2007 Mids also ranked in the top 10 nationally in kickoff returns and in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2004, Johnson was named Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year after leading Navy to a 10-2 record, tying the school record for wins set in 1905, and won a bowl game (34-19 victory vs. New Mexico in the Emerald Bowl) for just the fifth time in the history of the program.

In 2003, Johnson led Navy to an 8-5 record and brought the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy back to Annapolis for the first time since 1981, propelling Navy to a bowl game for the first time since 1996. The Mids became just the sixth team in NCAA history to go from a winless season to a bowl game in two years or less.

Before arriving at Annapolis, Johnson served as head coach at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001. At Georgia Southern, Johnson posted a 62-10 (.861) record, won two straight I-AA National Championships (1999 and 2000), five consecutive Southern Conference Championships and was named the Division I-AA National Coach of the Year four straight years (1997-2000).

After Johnson took over as head coach at Georgia Southern in 1997, he returned the Eagle program to national prominence statistically and in the won-lost ledger. In addition to Georgia Southern's 62-10 mark, the Eagles scored 2,855 points (39.7 points per game), picked up 25,941 rushing yards (360.3 yards per game), 7,816 passing yards (108.6 yards per game) and 33,757 total yards (468.8 yards per game). GSU scored 380 touchdowns in the Johnson era, an average of 5.3 per game. The Eagles' scoring margin under Johnson was +21.5 (39.7-18.5).

Johnson picked up a milestone victory in the 2000 I-AA National Championship Game against Montana. Not only did the 27-25 victory give Georgia Southern its second straight national title, but it was also Johnson's 50th career win in four seasons. Only three other coaches in the history of Division I football won 50 or more games in four seasons -- Walter Camp (1888-1891, 54-2 at Yale), George Woodruff (1892-1895, 53-4 at Penn) and Bob Pruett (1996-99, 50-4 at Marshall).

Johnson took over a Georgia Southern program in 1997 that was 4-7 the previous year and orchestrated a turnaround that ranked among the NCAA's best, directing the Eagles to a 10-3 record. He was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year by the media and Region II Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

In 1998, Johnson guided the Eagles to a perfect 11-0 regular season record and the school's sixth NCAA Division I-AA National Championship Game appearance before finishing with a 14-1 mark. He directed a high-powered offensive unit that tied or broke 100 records during the campaign, again earned the league's top coaching honor and received The Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award -- symbolic of the division's national Coach of the Year selection.

In 1999, Johnson brought Georgia Southern its fifth national title, and the Eagles finished 13-2 while breaking 197 records. For his efforts, Johnson was honored as the 1999 AFCA and Chevrolet I-AA National Coach of the Year. Johnson duplicated the feat in the 2000 season as the Eagles repeated as national champions, again finishing 13-2, and Johnson captured the AFCA I-AA Coach of the Year award once more.

In five seasons at Georgia Southern, Johnson's squads broke or tied 379 individual and team school, conference, playoff or stadium records, ranked in the top 10 in 21 statistical categories and produced 31 All-Americans. The Eagles won an NCAA I-AA-record 39 consecutive games at home. Meanwhile, their 52 wins over those four seasons were the most in all of Division I.

Johnson was previously Navy's offensive coordinator in 1995 and 1996, and his spread offense made an immediate impact, breaking five school records during the Mids' five-win season in 1995.

Navy posted a 9-3 record the next season in 1996, including a 42-38 victory over California in the Aloha Bowl. It was Navy's first winning season since 1982 and one of only two winning seasons the Mids had during a 19-year span. Prior to joining the Navy staff, Johnson spent eight seasons as the offensive coordinator at the University of Hawai'i (1987-94). He helped guide the Rainbows to their first Western Athletic Conference title and their first bowl appearance, coordinating an explosive offense that broke or equaled more than 160 school records.

While at Hawai'i, Johnson developed a successful offensive unit which earned top-20 I-A statistical rankings in scoring offense, total offense and rushing offense during six of his eight seasons. He earned top offensive coach honors in the WAC and was named one of the top 10 assistant coaches in the country by The Sporting News. After first arriving at Georgia Southern in 1983 as defensive line coach, Johnson was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1985. Under his tutelage, record-setting quarterback Tracy Ham and the Eagle offense re-wrote the school record book while averaging 435 total yards and 36 points per contest. Georgia Southern rolled to a combined 26-4 record and captured a pair of I-AA titles in 1985-86.

Johnson's coaching career began when he was offensive coordinator and line coach at his alma mater, Avery County (N.C.) High School, in 1979-80. He accepted the offensive coordinator's position at Lees-McRae Junior College in 1981, leading his offensive unit to a sixth-place national standing among NJCAA total offense leaders.

Johnson, a native of Newland, N.C., earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Carolina in 1979 and a Master's degree in health and physical education from Appalachian State in 1982. He and wife, Susan, are the parents of a daughter, Kaitlyn.

PAUL JOHNSON'S GEORGIA TECH TIMELINE

December 7, 2007 -- Named head coach at Georgia Tech after six successful seasons at Navy.

January 2, 2008 -- Johnson announces first coaching staff (Brian Bohannon, Jeff Monken, Todd Spencer, Brian Jean-Mary, Charles Kelly, Giff Smith, Dave Wommack, Mike Sewak and Al "Buzz" Preston).

February 6, 2008 -- Johnson's first recruiting class includes 20 high school senior prospects.

March 24, 2008 -- First spring practice under Johnson at Tech.

August 28, 2008 -- First game at Tech is a success, a 41-14 win over Jacksonville State.

September 6, 2008 -- First ACC game and first road game, a 19-16 win at defending ACC Atlantic Division champion Boston College.

September 13, 2008 -- First loss, a 20-17 setback on the road against defending Coastal Division champion Virginia Tech.

October 4, 2008 -- With true freshman Jaybo Shaw starting at quarterback for injured starter Joshua Nesbitt, Tech shuts out Duke, 27-0.

October 18, 2008 -- Key road win at Death Valley against Clemson, 21-17.

November 1, 2008 -- Tech knocks off Bobby Bowden and Florida State at Bobby Dodd Stadium, 31-28.

November 20, 2008 -- Under the Thursday night lights of ESPN, the Jackets roll past Miami, 41-23.

November 29, 2008 -- Tech overcomes a 28-12 halftime deficit to beat rival Georgia between the hedges, 45-42, snapping a seven-year losing skid to the Bulldogs.

December 2, 2008 -- Johnson named ACC Coach of the Year.

December 31, 2008 -- Four months after Sports Illustrated picked Tech to win just three games, the Yellow Jackets close the season with a 9-4 record after falling to LSU in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

September 10, 2009 -- Tech wins key division game on ESPN's Thursday night package, beating Clemson, 30-27.

October 11, 2009 -- The Jackets win in Tallahassee for the first time, beating Florida State 49-44 in a shootout.

October 17, 2009 -- Tech's 23-17 win over fourth-ranked Virginia Tech is the Yellow Jackets' first home win over a team ranked in the top five in nearly 50 years.

November 14, 2009 -- The Jackets clinch the ACC Coastal Division crown with a 49-10 win at Duke.

December 1, 2009 -- Johnson named ACC Coach of the Year for the second straight year -- the first time a coach has ever won the award in each of his first two seasons in the league.

December 6, 2009 -- In a game that was later vacated, Tech defeats Clemson, 39-34, in the ACC Championship Game in Tampa, Fla., sending the Yellow Jackets to a BCS Bowl game.

January 5, 2010 -- The Jackets fall to Iowa in the FedEx Orange Bowl, capping an 11-3 season.

April 22, 2010 -- Two of Johnson's players -- Derrick Morgan and Demaryius Thomas -- are selected in the first round of the NFL draft.

December 27, 2010 -- Tech faces Air Force in the Advocare V100 Independence Bowl.

January, 2011 -- Tech finishes first nationally in rushing offense for the first time in school history.

August, 2011 -- The John and Mary Brock Indoor Practice Facility opens.

September 17, 2011 -- Tech set an NCAA record with 12.1 yards per rushing attempt, and an ACC record with 13.5 yards per play, in a 66-24 rout of Kansas.

October 29, 2011 -- The Jackets knocked off 6th-ranked, previously unbeaten and eventual ACC champion Clemson, 31-17, in front of 55,646 at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

November 10, 2012 -- Tech turned the season around and broke ACC records in the process with a 68-50 win at North Carolina.

December 31, 2012 -- The Yellow Jackets broke a bowl losing skid by beating USC -- which was the preseason No. 1-ranked team -- in the Hyundai Sun Bowl, 21-7.

January 9, 2013 -- Johnson hires former Georgia Tech player and assistant coach Ted Roof as defensive coordinator.

September 14-21, 2013 -- Tech defeats Duke and North Carolina on consecutive Saturdays, marking the fifth straight year the Jackets have defeated the Blue Devils and Tar Heels.

October 19, 2013 -- The Yellow Jackets blank Syracuse, 56-0, giving Tech two shutouts in one season for the first time since 1985. Tech went on to also beat Pittsburgh to give the Jackets a sweep of the ACC newcomers.

BRYAN COOK

@CoachBryanCook
Quarterbacks/B-Backs
2nd straight season at Tech
5th season overall at Tech
Ithaca '98

Bryan Cook, who is in his second stint at Georgia Tech, enters his second season as quarterbacks and B-backs coach for the Yellow Jackets.

Cook, who was on the Yellow Jacket coaching staff in the early 2000s, returned to Atlanta in 2013 after serving four seasons (2009-12) as co-offensive coordinator at Cal Poly.

Last season Cook saw the Georgia Tech offense put up huge numbers en route to a 17th consecutive bowl game appearance. The Yellow Jackets ranked sixth nationally in rushing, tied for fourth in third-down percentage and led the nation in yards per pass completion. Tech produced 48 rushing touchdowns, tying Oregon for the most nationally. The Jackets had 41 rushing plays of 20 yards or more, second only to Oregon (43).

Cook tutored a pair of young quarterbacks -- sophomore Vad Lee and redshirt freshman Justin Thomas -- who combined for 747 yards rushing and 10 touchdowns.

Senior B-back David Sims, who finished his career ranked 11th in Georgia Tech history for rushing yards, earned honorable mention All-ACC honors. Junior Zach Laskey eclipsed 1,000 career rushing yards in 2013.

Cook was an ideal fit for the Tech coaching staff after working with a similar style offense at Cal Poly.

Cal Poly finished 9-3 in 2012 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA FCS playoffs. The Mustangs, who were 7-1 in their first year in the Big Sky Conference, compiled a record of 26-19 in Cook's four seasons.

Under Cook, who also coached the Cal Poly quarterbacks and fullbacks, the Mustangs ranked third nationally last season in FCS rushing offense (324.2 yards per game), seventh in scoring offense (36.7 ppg) and first in pass efficiency (175.7).

Prior to joining the Cal Poly staff in 2009, Cook served four years as head coach at West Point Prep in Monmouth, N.J., where he compiled a 28-22-1 record. His 2008 team finished 7-3 and the 2006 squad went 8-2. He was the defensive coordinator at West Point Prep in 2004 before being promoted to head coach.

Cook was a graduate assistant coach three seasons at Georgia Tech under two different head coaches. In 2001, when Tech went 8-5 and played in the Seattle Bowl, Cook helped coach the Yellow Jacket defensive backs and special teams under head coach George O'Leary. In 2002, Cook coached tight ends under head coach Chan Gailey and helped Tech produce a 7-6 record and a Silicon Valley Classic appearance. In 2003, Cook worked with the safeties for a team that advanced to the Humanitarian Bowl.

A 1998 graduate of Ithaca, Cook coached the Bomber wide receivers in 1999 before working as a defensive assistant at Lafayette in 2000.

Cook was a four-year Dean's List student at Ithaca, earning a bachelor's degree in health and physical education in December, 1998, graduating Magna Cum Laude, and completing his master's degree in exercise science in September, 2000.

At Ithaca, Cook lettered in both football and lacrosse, earning all-conference honors in lacrosse as a defenseman. Cook was a starting strong safety on the gridiron when Ithaca captured ECAC championships in 1996 and 1998.

Originally from upstate New York, Cook and wife, Julia, have two children, son, Jackson, and daughter, Reagan.

ANDY McCOLLUM

Linebackers
Recruiting Coordinator
5th season at Tech
Austin Peay State '81

Andy McCollum, who has been an assistant and head coach in college football for 32 years, enters his fifth season on the Georgia Tech staff.

Since arriving on the Flats, McCollum has worn a number of hats. After coaching the Yellow Jacket defensive line for 2.5 years, the Marietta (Ga.) native switched to linebackers midway through the 2012 season.

In addition, McCollum has served as Tech's recruiting coordinator the last four years.

Last season McCollum helped the Georgia Tech defense make remarkable strides. The Yellow Jackets improved their national ranking statistically in rushing defense, pass defense, total defense, scoring defense and third-down defense.

The linebacker trio of Brandon Watts, Quayshawn Nealy and Jabari Hunt-Days combined for 177 tackles, including 14 tackles for loss last season. McCollum tutored true freshman Paul Davis, who emerged as one of the ACC's top rookie defenders.

While coaching the defensive line, McCollum helped develop Jeremiah Attaochu, who last season broke Georgia Tech's all-time career sacks record.

In 2012, McCollum's defensive line helped the Yellow Jackets improve statistically in rushing defense, scoring defense and sacks. Under McCollum's guidance, starters Izaan Cross and T.J. Barnes enjoyed outstanding senior seasons. Cross was invited to play in the East-West Shrine Game and Barnes was selected to participate in the NFL Combine.

After Game 6, McCollum moved to coaching inside linebackers, where he saw Jabari Hunt-Days earn first team Freshmen All-American honors and Nealy earn ACC Linebacker of the Week honors.

In his first season at Georgia Tech, McCollum helped install the 3-4 defense. Faced with the task of players learning a completely new system, McCollum helped mold the defensive line into a solid front.

McCollum came to the Flats after serving three seasons (2007-09) as linebackers coach at NC State, where he was a part of Wolfpack head coach Tom O'Brien's initial coaching staff. NC State participated in the 2008 Papajohns.com Bowl.

McCollum coached three Wolfpack linebackers who were drafted and went on to play in the NFL -- Nate Irving, Terrell Manning and Audie Cole.

Prior to his tenure at NC State, McCollum spent one season in the NFL as an advance scout for the Tennessee Titans in 2006.

McCollum served as head coach at Middle Tennessee State for seven seasons (1999-2005), helping the Blue Raider program make the transition from a struggling I-AA squad to a successful I-A program that competed against BCS opponents 26 times during his tenure. MTSU set 84 school records with McCollum at the helm. In 2000, McCollum led the Blue Raiders to a 6-5 record, their first winning record as a I-A program, including back-to-back wins over Connecticut and South Florida by a combined score of 111-19.

His 2001 MTSU squad finished 8-3, won the Sun Belt Conference championship, and ranked fifth nationally in offense. In 2005, the Blue Raider defense ranked ninth nationally. In 2002, 2004 and 2005 he brought in what were considered the top recruiting classes in the Sun Belt Conference. McCollum was named Coach of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Writers Association in 2000 and 2001.

From 1994 to 1998, McCollum worked at Baylor in a variety of roles. In 1995 and 1996 he served as associate head coach, defensive coordinator and coach of the special teams. In '94, the Bears participated in the Alamo Bowl. In 1995, the Bear defense ranked fifth nationally in total defense, fifth in pass defense and ninth in scoring defense.

From 1989 to 1992, McCollum worked as an assistant coach at UTEP. He coached the Miners' wide receivers and special teams in 1989 before moving over to defense to coach the linebackers and special teams from 1990-93.

From 1981 to 1988, McCollum was an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State. In 1984 and 1985 the Blue Raiders advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs.

Before embarking on a coaching career, McCollum was a four-year starter (offensive guard and tight end) at Austin Peay State from 1977 to 1980. He led the Governors in receptions in 1979 and was a starter on the '77 Ohio Valley Conference championship team.

McCollum earned his undergraduate degree from Austin Peay State in 1981, and his master's from Middle Tennessee State in 1983.

McCollum was born (March 1, 1959) in Marietta (Ga.), where he played football at Marietta High School. He was inducted into the Marietta High School Hall of Fame.

McCollum has two children: Drew and Andrea.

LAMAR OWENS

A-Backs
7th season at Tech
Maryland '08

Lamar Owens enters his fifth season as coach of the A-Backs and his seventh season on the Georgia Tech coaching staff.

During his tenure at Georgia Tech, Owens has developed a number of A-backs into dependable ball-carriers and receivers.

Initially a walk-on, senior Robert Godhigh became a starter and a big-play threat under Owens' tutelage. Godhigh led the Yellow Jackets in touchdown receptions during the 2012 and 2013 seasons. Despite playing the first five games of the 2013 season in a cast, Godhigh led the team in all-purpose yards with 1215 yards. On November 14th, 2013 Godhigh became the only player to ever rush for over 100 yards and receive for over 100 yards against Clemson University when he accumulated 126 rushing yards and 105 receiving yards. His 9.1 yards per carry during his career is the second-best in ACC history, behind former teammate Orwin Smith.

In 2012, A-back Orwin Smith completed his career on the Flats leaving his mark on the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with an average of 9.3 yards per carry, more yards per carry than any running back with at least 1,000 career yards. While under Owens, Smith rushed for 1,839 yards.

The Yellow Jackets finished the 2012 season ranked fourth nationally in rushing offense – the fifth consecutive season ranked top five nationally in rushing offense. Tech set school records for rushing yards and total offense yards while averaging a school-record 40.0 points per game in conference play.

In 2011, the A-backs played a significant role in Georgia Tech leading the ACC in rushing offense, scoring offense and total offense. That year Smith, Embry Peeples and Roddy Jones combined for more than 1,500 rushing yards and nearly 600 receiving yards. Smith averaged 10.2 yards per carry and Tech broke an NCAA single-game record with an average of 12.1 yards per offensive play against Kansas. Both Peeples and Jones finished their careers in 2011 as 1000 yard rushers.

In 2010, Owens' group of young A-backs combined for 11 touchdowns -- nine via rushing and two by receiving. As a team, the Yellow Jackets led the nation in rushing for the first time in school history.

Owens spent the previous two seasons (2009 and 2008) as a staff assistant. He served in the role of Offensive Graduate Assistant working with the quarterbacks in 2009 and as the Offensive Quality Control Coach in 2008. In each of Owens' first two seasons on the Flats, the Yellow Jackets led the ACC in total offense while ranking in the top five nationally in rushing offense.

Owens has also served in an auxiliary capacity as the Community Service Coordinator for the Yellow Jackets since 2012. The members of the team have participated in 13 projects serving metro Atlanta and accumulated over 500 service hours through Owens' facilitation.

Owens graduated with a degree in Economics from the University of Maryland in May of 2008 after completing his football career at the US Naval Academy under head coach Paul Johnson. In 2005, as the quarterback, Owens directed a Navy offense that averaged 34.2 points and a nation's best 319.3 yards per game on the ground as the Midshipmen went 8-4, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and won a bowl game in consecutive years (beat Colorado State, 51-30) for the first time in school history. Owens was named All-East as he rushed for 880 yards and threw for 1,229 yards, breaking four school records for total offense and passing yards per attempt and completion.

A native of Savannah, Ga.,Owens is married to the former Lindsey Vincent.

MIKE PELTON

Defensive Line
2nd season at Tech
Auburn '99

A veteran coach with 14 years of experience coaching defense on the collegiate level, Mike Pelton enters his second season at Georgia Tech as coach of the defensive line.

Pelton came to the Flats early in 2013, reuniting with defensive coordinator Ted Roof. Pelton and Roof were on the same defensive staff at Auburn in 2010 when the Tigers won the national championship.

In Pelton's first season at Tech -- a year in which he helped Roof install a multiple 4-3 scheme -- the Yellow Jackets made remarkable strides in just one year. Tech made significant improvements in rushing defense, total defense, scoring defense and third-down defense. The Yellow Jackets recorded two shutouts -- vs. Elon and Syracuse -- the first time since 1985 that Tech recorded two shutouts in one season.

Under Pelton's watch, senior defensive end Jeremiah Attaochu recorded a team-best 16.0 tackles for loss and 12.5 sacks. Attaochu's late-season surge helped the senior break Tech's all-time career sacks record. Attaochu was named first-team All-ACC by the league's coaches and he earned third-team All-American honors from multiple sources.

Prior to coming to Atlanta, Pelton spent the previous two seasons at Auburn, his alma mater, where he coached the Tigers' defensive line.

Before to returning to his alma mater in 2011, Pelton coached defensive lines at Louisiana-Lafayette (January-March, 2011), Vanderbilt (2010), Iowa State (2007-08), Troy (2001-06) and Valdosta State (2000).

A native of Goshen, Ala., Pelton spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons at Iowa State working under Gene Chizik. Pelton's defensive lines were an area of strong improvement in his two seasons with the Cyclones. Pelton mentored a pair of second-team All-Big 12 selections at Iowa State in nose guard Ahtyba Rubin and defensive end Kurtis Taylor. Rubin went on to become a starter for the Cleveland Browns after being selected in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL draft.

Prior to working under Chizik at Iowa State, Pelton spent six years under Larry Blakeney on the staff at Troy, including the final two years as co-defensive coordinator.

The Troy defense was consistently among the nation's leaders in several categories. In 2002, the Trojans ranked fourth nationally, allowing just 277 total yards per game. In 2004, the Trojans ranked 16th in total defense.

Pelton worked with two of the most prolific defensive linemen in Troy history, Demarcus Ware and Osi Umenyiora. A six-year NFL veteran, Ware is a five-time Pro Bowler and three-time All-Pro linebacker with Dallas. Umenyiora is a two-time Pro Bowl defensive end for the New York Giants.

Prior to going to Troy, Pelton coached the defensive line at Valdosta State (Ga.) University in 2000. The Blazers posted a 10-2 record and made the NCAA Division II playoffs.

As a player at Auburn, Pelton was a standout defensive tackle, earning first team All-SEC recognition in 1994. A four-year letterman from 1991-94, Pelton was a co-captain as a senior and helped the Tigers win a school-record 20 consecutive games from 1993-94. Auburn posted an 11-0 record in 1993, finishing fourth in the Associated Press poll. The Tigers went 9-1-1 the following season in 1994, finishing ninth in the AP top 25.

As a senior in 1994, Pelton recorded 10.0 sacks which tied for fourth-most in a single-season in Auburn history. Pelton finished his career with 294 tackles, 18 tackles for loss and 15 sacks.

Pelton was a fifth-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1995 NFL Draft

He graduated from Auburn in 1999 with a degree in Health & Sports Science.

AL "BUZZ" PRESTON

@CoachBuzzPres
Wide Receivers
7th season at Tech
Hawaii '82

Al "Buzz" Preston, who has enjoyed success from Honolulu to South Bend and has coached in every American time zone, begins his seventh season in Atlanta as Georgia Tech's wide receivers coach.

In just six seasons on the Flats, Preston has developed three NFL wide receivers -- Demaryius Thomas (Denver Broncos), Stephen Hill (New York Jets) and Kevin Cone (Atlanta Falcons).

Thomas was an NFL first-round draft pick in 2010, while Hill was chosen early in the second round in 2012.

Thomas, who made remarkable strides under Preston, left Tech as one of the most prolific receivers in Georgia Tech history. In just three seasons Thomas caught 120 passes for 2,339 yards (fourth-most in Tech history) while averaging 19.5 yards per reception. Thomas had 15 career touchdown receptions and caught at least one pass in 29 consecutive games.

Hill collected more than 1,200 career receiving yards to go with nine touchdown receptions. As a junior in 2011, he led the nation in yards per reception (29.3).

Last season Preston tutored junior DeAndre Smelter -- a Yellow Jacket baseball player who joined the football program last summer -- and helped him develop into Tech's most productive wide receiver. Smelter had 21 receptions for 345 yards and a team-best four touchdowns.

Both starting wide receivers -- Smelter and Micheal Summers -- entered last season having never played in a college football game. The Yellow Jackets, however, led the nation in yards per reception (18.4).

Entering the 2012 season, Preston faced an interesting situation: he had no receivers with a career reception. Under Preston's guidance, however, two sophomores and a true freshman combined for 563 yards receiving and two touchdowns. The wide receivers played a large role in Georgia Tech breaking the school record for total offense yards in a season.

Since Preston's arrival, Tech has led the ACC in total offense three times.

Preston came to Tech after serving one season at New Mexico, where he helped lead the Lobos to their first bowl victory in more than 45 years. As New Mexico's running backs coach in 2007, Preston coached Lobo junior running back Rodney Ferguson, who earned first team All-Mountain West Conference honors for the second straight year after rushing for 1,177 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Preston has 34 seasons of collegiate coaching experience, including two stints at Stanford (1999-2001, 2006). During his first three-year run with the Cardinal, Preston was part of two bowl teams that were also two of the best squads in Stanford history. He helped coach the Cardinal to the 1999 Pac-10 title on its way to the 2000 Rose Bowl. In 2001, Stanford put together a 9-3 record and was ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation during the year before playing in the Seattle Bowl against Georgia Tech.

Following his three seasons at Stanford, Preston went with coach Tyrone Willingham to Notre Dame for three more seasons (2002-04) to coach the running backs and serve as special teams coordinator. He helped lead the Irish to appearances in the Gator Bowl in 2002 and the Insight Bowl following the 2003 regular season.

Under Preston's tutelage, Julius Jones rushed for 1,268 yards and 10 touchdowns as a senior at Notre Dame in 2003. Jones also had 1,568 all-purpose yards and a school-record three 200-yard rushing games in '03 en route to honorable mention All-America honors. Jones went on to be selected in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. In 2002, Irish running back Ryan Grant eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark as well.

Before coming to Stanford for the first time, Preston was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator/QB coach at UNLV in 1998. Prior to that, he coached running backs at Washington State from 1994-97. During his four-year term at Washington State, Preston was part of a coaching staff that guided the Cougars to the Pac-10 championship in 1997 and its first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years. The Cougar offense broke the Pac-10 record for most total yards in a single season.

One of Preston's pupils, Mike Black, gained 1,157 yards rushing and was named All-Pac 10. The Cougars finished 10-2 overall and were ranked ninth in the nation.

Preston also coached at his alma mater, Hawai'i, from 1987-93, when he served on the same coaching staff with Paul Johnson. He had several roles during his tenure with the Rainbows, including coaching the offensive special teams, receivers and defensive backs, while also serving as the strength and conditioning liaison. Preston's seven-year stay at Hawai'i was highlighted by the first two bowl games in school history and the first Western Athletic Conference title ever for the program. In 1989, Hawai'i participated in its first bowl game, losing to Michigan State in the Aloha Bowl. The Rainbows won the WAC championship in 1992 and went on to defeat Illinois in the Holiday Bowl.

Preston's first full-time coaching job came at Southern Illinois from 1984-86 when he tutored receivers and the defensive backfield. During his three seasons in Carbondale, SIU's defense improved dramatically -- from eighth to second in the conference -- while nine of his pupils received all-conference recognition.

He was a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1980 and 1981, a part-time coach at UH in 1982, and a graduate assistant at Washington in 1983. During his career, Preston has also been a guest coach for the Toronto Argonauts, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Miami Dolphins and Philadelphia Eagles.

A native of Los Angeles, Preston received a bachelor's degree in speech from Hawai'i in 1982. He was a two-year letterwinner (1978-79) with the Rainbow football team. Preston is a 1975 graduate of Banning High School in Los Angeles.

Preston and his wife, Audrey, have three children: Amber, Evan and Quinn.

TED ROOF

@CoachTedRoof
Defensive Coordinator
2nd straight season at Tech
7th season at Tech overall
Georgia Tech '86

Ted Roof has enjoyed success at Georgia Tech, his alma mater, as a player, an assistant coach, and most recently as defensive coordinator.

Roof enters his second season as coordinator of a rejuvenated Yellow Jacket defense that made remarkable strides in 2013.

After returning to the Flats in January (2013), it took Roof just 15 spring practices and a month of August practices to successfully install a multiple 4-3 scheme. In Roof's first season as defensive coordinator, Tech made significant improvements in rushing defense, scoring defense, total defense and third-down defense.

Last season, Georgia Tech shutout both Elon and Syracuse -- the first time since 1985 that the Yellow Jackets recorded two shutouts in one season. Ironically, Roof played on that 1985 Tech squad.

Roof and his staff helped tutor senior Jeremiah Attaochu, who moved from outside linebacker in 2012 to defensive end in '13, who earned All-ACC and All-American honors last season. Attaochu used a late-season surge to break Georgia Tech's all-time career sacks record.

Senior defensive back Jemea Thomas, who will certainly join Attaochu in the NFL this fall, led the Yellow Jackets in tackles (88) and pass break-ups (8) last year.

Roof, one of the most-respected defensive minds in college football, has strong ties to Georgia Tech.

He was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker under head coach Bill Curry from 1982-85. As a senior, Roof was co-captain and a first team All-ACC selection on a team that finished 9-2-1 and defeated Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. He was named All-American and first team All-ACC.

Roof remains one of the most prolific tacklers in Yellow Jackets history with 417 career tackles. He made 25 tackles in one game against Tennessee in 1985.

Roof was enshrined into the Georgia Tech Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998.

Roof returned to Georgia Tech in 1998 to serve as linebackers coach under head coach George O'Leary. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1999 and held that position for three years. The Yellow Jackets shared an ACC title in '98 and played in a bowl game all four years during Roof's tenure.

A native of Lawrenceville (Ga.), Roof attended Central Gwinnett High School.

Roof came back to Georgia Tech after serving the 2012 season as defensive coordinator at Penn State, where he worked under another former Yellow Jacket assistant coach, Bill O'Brien.

The Nittany Lions exceeded all expectations by posting an 8-4 record. Roof's defense ranked second in the Big Ten Conference in scoring defense (19.1 ppg), first in sacks (34), first in red-zone defense and third in turnover margin.

Nationally, Penn State ranked tied for first in red-zone defense, 15th in sacks, 16th in scoring defense, 23rd in rushing defense, 28th in pass efficiency defense and 29th in total defense.

Two of the Big Ten's top six tacklers were Nittany Lions – Gerald Hodges and Michael Mauti. Hodges was named first team all-conference and Mauti was named the Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year.

Prior to working at Penn State, Roof was the defensive coordinator at Auburn for three years, including the Tigers' BCS national championship season in 2010.

In 2010 at Auburn, Roof's defense ranked ninth nationally in rushing defense and 16th in tackles for loss. In the BCS Championship game, the Tigers (14-0) held Oregon to 19 points – 28 points below the Ducks' season average.

Prior to coaching at Auburn, Roof spent the 2008 season as defensive coordinator at Minnesota. In just one season under Roof, the Gophers made significant improvements on defense, allowing 160 fewer passing yards and 135 fewer total yards per game compared to the previous season. Minnesota improved from 1-11 to 7-6 in 2008, capped by an appearance in the Insight Bowl.

From 2004 to 2007, Roof served as head coach at Duke after working as the Blue Devils' defensive coordinator in 2002 and 2003. He was promoted to interim head coach midway through the 2003 season after head coach Carl Franks was fired.

In 2001, the year before Roof arrived in Durham, Duke ranked 113th nationally (out of 115) in rushing defense. In Roof's first season at Duke in 2002, the Blue Devils ranked first in the ACC in that category.

Roof's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at Alabama in 1987 and 1988. After one year as linebackers coach at West Georgia, he moved to Duke to coach linebackers from 1990 to 1993. Other coaching stops included 1994-96 (defensive coordinator in '95-'96) at Massachusetts and 1997 (defensive coordinator) at Western Carolina before returning to Tech in 1998.

In all, Roof has coached 27 years on the collegiate level. More than 60 players that he has coached went on to sign NFL contracts.

Roof and wife, Pam Ash-Roof, have twin boys, Terrence and Michael.

RAY RYCHLESKI

@CoachRayR
Special Teams Coordinator/ co-Offensive Line
1st season at Tech
Millersville State College '79

Veteran college and professional coach Ray Rychleski embarks on his first season at Georgia Tech, where he will coach special teams and assist with the Yellow Jacket offensive line.

Rychleski has more than 30 years of coaching experience, working in basically every level of football. He has coached previously in the NFL (three years), the CFL (1), NCAA FBS (25), NCAA FCS (2), NCAA Division II (1) and high shool (2).

Rychleski spent the 2013 season in the Canadian Football League as special teams coordinator with the Montreal Alouettes. Montreal's special teams ranked first in the CFL in blocked kicks, ranked second in kickoff return average and second in punt return average. The Alouettes returned three kicks or punts for touchdowns.

Prior to working north of the border, Rychleski served three seasons as special teams coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts.

In his first season in Indianapolis in 2009, Rychleski was part of a team that enjoyed remarkable success. The Colts began the season 14-0, earned the No. 1 seed in the playoffs, won the AFC championship and earned a spot in Super Bowl XLIV. Indy's 14 wins that season tied a franchise record.

During his three seasons in Indianapolis, Rychleski coached three of the NFL's top specialists -- punter Pat McAfee and kickers Matt Stover and Adam Vinatieri.

Prior to joining the Colts, Rychleski coached 28 years on the college level, most recently at South Carolina, where he was special teams coordinator and tight ends coach in 2008. Rychleski helped coach Steve Spurrier's squad reach the Outback Bowl in his only season with the Gamecocks.

The Gamecocks ranked among the SEC leaders in 2008 in field goals made (1st), kickoff coverage (2nd) and kickoff return yards (3rd). USC also blocked one kick for a touchdown.

In his only season in Columbia, Rychleski coached Gamecock tight end Jared Cook, a first-team All-SEC performer who enters his sxith season in the NFL with the St. Louis Rams.

From 2001 to 2007, Rychleski was the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Maryland. In his seven seasons with the Terrapins, the team compiled a 56-31 record, winning an ACC championship and participating in five bowl games, winning three in a row (by combined scores of 95-17). He also helped the Terrapins win 10 or more games in three straight seasons, which was a first in school history. In the 15 years prior to 2001, Maryland posted just two winning seasons.

Under Rychleski, the Terrapins special teams shined. During Rychleski's tenure, Maryland led the ACC and ranked in the top 10 nationally in net punting in 2001, 2002 and 2004. From 2001 through '06, Maryland placed a punter on the All-ACC team, and in 2007 the Terps ranked first nationally in kick return defense.

While at Maryland, Rychleski coached several future NFL performers including tight ends Dan Gronkowski and Vernon Davis, punters Adam Podlesh and Brooks Barnard, and kicker Nick Novak, among others.

From 1993 to 2000, he held various coaching positions at Wake Forest, including special teams and tight ends in 1999 and 2000. Under Rychleski, the Demon Deacons ranked in the top 25 nationally in kickoff return average in both 1999 and 2000. Wake's 1999 team, which was coached by Jim Caldwell, played in and won the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Rychleski began his eight-year tenure at Wake Forest as an assistant coach on the defensive side of the ball from 1993 through 1998 as coach of the defensive line (1993-95) and outside linebackers (1996-98). Wake defensive end Calvin Pace, who went on to be selected in the first round of the NFL draft, began his college career under Rychleski's tutelage.

Rychleski worked at East Stroudsburg University, an NCAA Division II school, in 1992, as coach of defensive backs and special teams coordinator. In his only season at ESU, Rychleski worked with units that forced 37 turnovers (25 interceptions, 12 fumbles) in a 10-game schedule. The Warriors, who went 8-2 that season, ranked eighth nationally in kickoff return average.

In 1991, Rychleski was on the staff at Penn State, working primarily with the Nittany Lion offensive line. That Penn State team finished No. 3 in the national polls and won the Fiesta Bowl.

Prior to working at Penn State, Rychleski coached two seasons (1989-90) at Northeastern, where he was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Rychleski began his lengthy college coaching career in 1981 at Temple -- his first of eight seasons with the Owls -- methodically working his way up the ladder. He began his tenure at Temple as a volunteer assistant coach in 1981 before becoming a graduate assistant coach in 1983. In 1985, Rychleski was promoted to full-time status, coaching outside linebackers and rovers, a position he held from 1985 through 1988.

While student-teaching in 1979, Rychleski immediately embarked on a coaching career by serving as a volunteer assistant coach at Manheim Township (Pa.) High School. In 1980 he got his first paid position as freshman coach at Neshaminy (Pa.) Maple Point High School.

During one stretch of Rychleski's career -- beginning at Wake Forest and extending to his stints at Maryland and South Carolina -- he was on the sidelines for 110 consecutive games in which his teams did not allow a blocked punt.

Overall, Rychleski has coached 12 specialists who played in the NFL. Five tight ends he has coached have been drafted in the NFL, while five others have signed with teams as free agents. He has coached in eight bowl games, helping to produce a 5-3 record.

Rychleski was born September 27, 1957 in Old Forge, Pa. He earned his degree from Millersville (Pa.) State College in 1979.

MIKE SEWAK

@CoachMike Sewak
Offensive Line
7th season at Tech
Virginia '81

Mike Sewak, who has coached on the college level for 30 years including four years as head coach at Georgia Southern, enters his seventh year at Georgia Tech as coach of the offensive line.

Sewak, in his first four seasons at Tech, worked primarily with the guards and centers. He begins his third season coaching the entire offensive line.

Since Sewak arrived at Tech in 2008, at least one Yellow Jacket offensive lineman has earned first team All-ACC honors every year. In all, Sewak has coached seven Yellow Jackets who were named first team All-ACC: Andrew Gardner in 2008, Sean Bedford and Cord Howard in 2009, Bedford in 2010, Omoregie Uzzi in 2011 and 2012, and Shaquille Mason in 2013. Uzzi earned All-American honors in 2012 and 2013.

Mason enters the 2014 season as a candidate for All-American honors. Bedford, who came to Georgia Tech as a walk-on defensive lineman, blossomed under Sewak into a two-time first team All-ACC performer.

Over the last six years, the offensive line has helped pave the way for remarkable numbers put up by the Yellow Jackets. In each of the last six years, Tech has ranked in the top six nationally in rushing offense. Over the last six years combined, the Yellow Jackets have rushed for more than 24,000 yards -- more than any team in college football.

Tech led the ACC in total offense in 2008, 2009 and 2011. In 2009, the Jackets ranked second nationally in rushing offense. In 2010, Tech ranked first nationally in rushing for the first time in school history. In 2011, the Yellow Jackets ranked second in the nation.

Sewak, Johnson's offensive coordinator at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001, replaced Johnson as head coach of the Eagles in 2002. He produced a record of 35-14 as Georgia Southern's head coach and led the Eagles to three NCAA Division I-AA playoffs appearances and two Southern Conference championships. He was named the 2004 Southern Conference Coach of the Year.

In his first season as head coach in 2002, Sewak led Georgia Southern to the I-AA semifinals and within a last-second missed field goal of the national championship game. The Eagles finished the season with an 11-3 record, won the school's sixth consecutive league title and made their fifth straight national semifinals appearance. In addition, Sewak's offense led the nation in rushing, averaging 386.2 yards per game.

Georgia Southern followed with an uncharacteristic 7-4 mark in 2003, a season which saw Sewak valiantly sidestep adversity and numerous key injuries to guide GSU to victories in six of its last eight games and earn his second straight rushing title as a head coach with a 335.6 yards per game average.

Sewak put GSU back on track in 2004. Georgia Southern rolled through the regular season with an offensive juggernaut, averaging 47 points per game and winning eight games in a row between losses to I-A Georgia and Southern Conference co-champion Furman, the No. 2 ranked team in I-AA.

While young on both sides of the ball in 2005, Georgia Southern led I-AA in rushing again. After a 1-2 start, the Eagles won seven of their last eight games to clinch an at-large playoff bid. The only loss during that stretch was to Appalachian State, the Southern Conference champion and the No. 2 seed in the I-AA playoffs. Sewak also led the Eagles to a win over Furman when the Paladins were ranked No. 1 in the country.

As offensive coordinator under Johnson at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001, Sewak's offensive unit consistently ranked as one of the nation's best at the NCAA Division I-AA level during the five-year span. After finishing second in rushing offense, total offense and scoring offense in 1998, the Eagles improved to a first-place national standing in all three categories in 1999 -- averaging 419.0 rushing yards, 551.7 total yards and 50.0 points per game.

In all, as Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator from 1997 to 2001, the Eagles rolled to a 62-10 mark, scored 2,855 points (39.7 ppg), picked up 25,941 rushing yards (360.3 ypg), 7,816 passing yards (108.6 ypg) and 33,757 total yards (468.8 ypg). Sewak also played a key role in helping lead Georgia Southern to five straight Southern Conference championships and NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances, three national championship games and two national titles in 1999 and 2000.

In addition, three Georgia Southern offensive linemen earned All-America honors under his direct guidance from 1997 to 2001. Guard Mark Williams, who also was the recipient of back-to-back Southern Conference Jacob's Blocking Trophies in '97 and '98, tackle Rich McGrath and center Matt Winslette all earned national honors under Sewak's leadership.

During his time at Georgia Southern, Sewak took an active role in the community, serving as a member of the Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) in the Bulloch County (Ga.) School District. He kept ties with the Special Olympics program, serving as a volunteer in various capacities. He also instilled a community relations leadership role for his players who spent many lunch and reading sessions with children at Statesboro's Mill Creek Elementary School and donated their time to the March of Dimes Walk America and "Operation Cleanup".

Sewak was appointed as the honorary chairperson of the Keep Bulloch Beautiful campaign in February, 2002, and was selected to a similar capacity for the 2003 Bulloch County's Walk America in January.

Prior to his second stint at Georgia Southern, Sewak helped turn around a struggling program at Ohio University as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under head coach Jim Grobe in 1995 and 1996. The Bobcats, after going 0-11 prior to Sewak's arrival, went 2-8-1 in '95 before posting a 6-6 record in 1996 – the school's best mark since 1982. Sewak directed an offensive unit which ranked first in the Mid-America Conference in rushing with a 274.0 per game average.

Prior to Ohio, Sewak spent eight years as an assistant coach at Hawai'i, where he coached the Warriors' offensive line for seven seasons and the wide receivers for one. During his tenure in Honolulu, Hawai'i won the 1992 Western Athletic Conference championship, broke more than 150 offensive records, and finished among the nation's offensive leaders each year, averaging 31.7 points and 418 yards per game.

Sewak's first stint at Georgia Southern came as an assistant coach with the Eagles in 1985 and 1986 when he worked under coach Erk Russell. Sewak coached the running backs and the defensive backs on national championship teams in 1985 and 1986, respectively. The Eagles captured their first two NCAA Division I-AA titles those seasons, recording consecutive 13-2 records.

Sewak's first association with Georgia Tech came in 1984 when he served as a graduate assistant tight ends coach under head coach Bill Curry.

A native of Johnstown, Pa., Sewak began his career in 1982 at Hobart (N.Y.) College where he served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

A three-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Virginia, Sewak earned a degree in psychology from UVa in 1981. He was invited to tryouts with the Baltimore Colts and Pittsburgh Steelers after the completion of his collegiate playing eligibility. Sewak added a masters degree in the spring of 2008 from Georgia Southern.

He and his wife, the former Robin Farmery of Marietta, Ga., are the parents of three children -- Michael Robert, Olivia and Nicholas.

JOE SPEED

@ramblinspeed
Defensive Backs
5th season at Tech
U.S. Naval Academy '96

Joe Speed begins his fifth season at Georgia Tech and his second coaching the Yellow Jacket defensive backs.

In 2010 and 2011, Speed coached Georgia Tech's inside linebackers. Midway through the 2012 season, he moved over to coach the outside linebackers. In 2013, Speed began coaching the defensive backs.

In his first two seasons in Atlanta, Speed helped to install the 3-4 defense. In 2013, the Yellow Jackets reverted back to the 4-3 under defensive coordinator Ted Roof.

Last season, Speed helped the Yellow Jacket defense make remarkable strides. Tech made significant improvements statistically in rushing defense, scoring defense, total defense and third-down defense. The Jackets recorded two shutouts in one season for the first time since 1985.

Despite two projected starters at safety -- Isaiah Johnson and Jamal Golden -- missing most or all of the season with injuries, the Tech secondary flourished in 2013. Senior Jemea Thomas, who led the team in tackles (88) and pass break-ups (8), paved the way. Thomas is highly likely to play in the NFL in 2014.

Under Speed's guidance in 2012, inside linebacker Quayshawn Nealy developed into one of the top ILB's in the ACC, and redshirt freshman Jabari Hunt-Days started from Day One and emerged as one of the top defensive rookies in the nation.

Former Yellow Jacket inside linebacker Julian Burnett emerged as one of the most prolific tacklers in recent Tech history. In 2011, Burnett had a team-high 120 tackles -- 42 more tackles than any player on the team. Burnett also had 9.5 tackles for loss and he forced and recovered fumbles as a junior in 2011.

The previous season, two of Speed's inside linebackers -- Burnett and senior Brad Jefferson -- ranked one-two on the team with a combined 173 tackles. Under Speed, Burnett went from a backup in September to leading the team with 89 tackles.

Speed came to Georgia Tech from the U.S. Naval Academy, his alma mater, where he worked six seasons under head coach Paul Johnson.

In his final four seasons at Navy, Speed coached the Midshipmen defensive backs and also served as head coach of the junior varsity team.

Speed was part of a staff that brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 61-29 record over his last seven years.

In 2009 Navy won 10 games (10-4) and defeated Missouri in the Texas Bowl. The Midshipmen defeated Army and Air Force to capture the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and the Navy defense ranked 18th nationally in scoring defense, allowing less than 20 points per game.

In 2008, Speed helped first-year head coach Ken Niumatalolo to one of the most successful seasons for a first-year head coach in school history. The Mids posted an 8-5 record in 2008, which is the best mark for a first-year head coach at Navy since 1934. The eight wins qualified the Midshipmen for the EagleBank Bowl. Navy earned a 24-17 victory over 16th-ranked Wake Forest, which was Navy's first win over a team ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 since 1985, as well as Navy's victory the previous week over Rutgers. It was the first time since 1981 that Navy beat teams currently in the BCS in back-to-back weeks. Navy also defeated a program-record four bowl teams.

The 2007 season -- Johnson's final campaign in Annapolis -- was a memorable one as well as the Midshipmen posted an 8-5 record, won a school-record fifth-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appeared in a school-record fifth-straight bowl game, and defeated Notre Dame for the first time since 1963. Safety Ketric Buffin became the first player in school history to intercept a pass in each of the first four games of the season.

In 2006 one of Speed's pupils, Keenan Little, became the first player in Navy history to score a defensive touchdown in both Service Academy games in the same year as Navy once again won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and participated in a bowl game.

Speed returned to the Naval Academy after a two-year hiatus at the Naval Academy Prep School in Newport, R.I., where he served as the Director of Athletics for two seasons and as the head football coach for one year.

Before going to the prep school, Speed had a successful military tour at the United States Naval Academy as a Captain in the United States Marine Corps.

In his first stint at Navy, Speed served as the Executive Administrator and Military Liaison Officer for the football team, while serving to recruit future Marine Officers, as well. Speed's military duties involved the supervision of various administrative, logistical, and professional matters pertaining to the football team and the Naval Academy Athletic Association.

On the field, Speed served as the assistant linebackers coach and head junior varsity coach. He coached four seasons at Navy and in 2003, helped guide the football team to an impressive 8-5 record, which included capturing the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and an appearance in the 2003 Houston Bowl.

A 1996 graduate of the Naval Academy, Speed was a standout on the gridiron for the Midshipmen. A four-year starter at safety, he finished his career with 260 tackles and five interceptions.

Following graduation, Speed was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps and reported to Quantico, Va., where he trained and took the Infantry Officers Course.

In September of 1997, he reported to GOLF Company, 2nd Battalion, 7th Marines in Twenty-Nine Palms, Calif., and in July of 1998, went to Okinawa, Japan, for six months, where he was involved in exercise FOAL EAGLE in Korea. After working with the Army in Fort Erwin, Calif., for a month, Speed went to Africa for three months on a security mission for the U.S. Embassy in Nairobi, Kenya.

MIKE HUFF

@mikeehuff
Director of Operations
7th season at Tech
Dayton '07

Mike Huff enters his second year as Georgia Tech's Director of Football Operations and his seventh year overall on the Flats.

As Director of Football Operations, Huff works closely with head coach Paul Johnson overseeing all aspects of the program's day-to-day support operations. Huff implements, builds, and develops the team budget, oversees business contracting, team travel, personnel, and facility upgrades and renovations.

He was instrumental in the development of Tech's NFL locker room, reserved for Yellow Jacket alumni currently playing in the NFL, and also the renovation of the football recruiting office.

Huff was promoted to Director in 2013 after serving two seasons as Assistant Director of Operations.

The Tulsa (Okla.) native joined the football staff in the fall of 2011 after spending the previous three seasons as a member of the Georgia Tech sports information staff.

Huff holds a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Dayton in 2007, and a master's degree in sport administration from Georgia State in 2010. He was a member of the University of Dayton soccer team from 2003-2006. Huff is single and resides in Atlanta.

ANDY LUTZ

Associate Director of Operations
2nd season at Tech
Pacific '91

A college football athletic administrator since 1991, Andy Lutz begins his second season on the Georgia Tech football staff as associate director of operations.

Lutz assists with the Yellow Jackets' team travel, bowl preparation, team housing and meals, and the day to day operations of the program.

Before coming to Georgia Tech in August of 2013, served as the assistant athletic director for football operations at Texas Tech. In that role, Lutz oversaw all facets of Texas Tech football's recruiting efforts as well as the day to day operations of the Red Raider program.

From late 1998 through 2008, Lutz worked as the assistant to the head football coach at Auburn, where his duties included day to day operations for recruiting and personnel.

Before working at Auburn, Lutz worked two years (1996-98) at Ole Miss in Oxford (Miss.) as the assistant to the athletic director for recruiting, where he helped coordinate the recruiting process for all Rebels' sports. Lutz was promoted to his position at Ole Miss after working as a graduate assistant for one year as a graduate assistant.

Lutz began his collegiate administration career in 1991 at his alma mater, the University of the Pacific, for three years, from 1991 to 1994. He then left for the University of Nevada, where he served as a graduate assistant for one year.

From 1991 through 2001, Lutz also worked outside the college athletics' arena as clinic director for the Frank Glazier Football Clinics.

Lutz graduated in Pacific with a degree in communications/public relations in 1991 after playing on the Tigers' football team from 1988 to 1991. He began his college career at San Joaquin Delta College, where Lutz was a an all-conference and second-team all-state defensive back.

Lutz earned his Master's in educational counseling psychology from Pacific in 1994.

Lutz and wife, Brandy, have one daughter, Aberle.

PETE HURT

Director of Player Personnel
1st season at Tech
Mississippi College '78

Pete Hurt, a former college and high school head coach with more than 100 victories to his credit, joined the Georgia Tech football staff in March, and was promoted in May to director of player personnel.

Hurt was head coach at Samford University for eight seasons, from 1994 to 2001, where he compiled a record of 42-39-1, making him the second-winningest coach in that school's history. Hurt was the Bulldogs' defensive coordinator in 1993 under then-head coach Chan Gailey, and was promoted to head coach when Gailey left the Birmingham (Ala.) school to take an assistant coaching position in the NFL.

A Cleveland (Miss.) native, Hurt has served as head coach at three different Mississippi high schools and took each school to at least the second round of the state playoffs, most recently at Northwest Rankin High School from 2011-13. He also served as a high school head coach in Mississippi at Clinton (2002-04) and Center Hill (2007-10). In addition to his duties as head coach, Hurt served as athletic director at Clinton and Northwest Rankin, and he was an assistant athletic director at Center Hill.

Hurt has served as an assistant coach or coordinator on the college level at North Texas (1981-82), Southeast Missouri State (1982-83), Baylor (1983-86), Lamar (1987-89), Rice (1990-91), Samford (1993) and Air Force (2005-06). From 1991 to 1992, he coached the defensive line for the Birmingham Fire of the World League of American Football.

SAEED KHALIF

Assistant Director of Player Personnel
2nd season at Tech
Georgia Tech '88

Saeed Khalif, a former Georgia Tech football standout, returned to his alma mater in May of 2013 to begin his tenure as assistant director of player personnel.

Khalif (known in college as Kyle Ambrose) played defensive line at Georgia Tech from 1984-86. Khalif was a member of Tech's "Black Watch Defense," a team captain and he was named first team All-ACC in 1986. Khalif, who played for head coach Bill Curry and helped lead the Yellow Jackets to a 9-2-1 record in 1985, was on the Denver Broncos roster in 1987.

Khalif returned to his alma mater after working the previous two years as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Savannah State. Previously, he served as head coach at Central High School in Newark, N.J., where he led CHS to back-to-back winning seasons.

Khalif was inducted into the Newark Sports Hall of Fame in October, 2013.

BRAD WAGGONER

@CoachWaggonerGT
Assistant Director of Player Personnel
1st season at Tech
Liberty '97

Brad Waggoner, who began his association with Georgia Tech 20 years ago as a linebacker for the Yellow Jackets, enters his first season assistant director of player personnel.

Waggoner comes to the Flats after serving the last 10 years as a high school head coach in Georgia, Alabama and Florida. Most recently, he was head coach and athletic director at Lumpkin County (Ga.) High School after previously working as the head coach at Decatur HS (2012-13) and Chattooga (Ga.) HS (2009-12).

From 1997 to 2000, Waggoner coached on the college level. In 1997 he served as an assistant coach and video coordinator at VMI, followed by two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Alabama in 1998 and 1999. He went on to work as an assistant coach at West Alabama through 2000.

From 2000 through 2003, Waggoner was an assistant coach at Sandy Creek HS in Tyrone (Ga.), where he helped coach Georgia Tech standouts Calvin Johnson and Andrew Gardner.

Waggoner grew up in Fayetteville (Ga.) where he attended Landmark Christian High School. After graduating, he attended Georgia Tech in 1994 where he played linebacker for the Yellow Jackets. He finished his career at Liberty University, where he played linebacker for the Flames in 1995 and 1996.

Waggoner and wife, Mary Beth have a son, Brad, Jr.

PRESTON PEHRSON

@CoachPerson
Graduate Assistant Coach
4th season at Tech
Towson '09

Preston Pehrson begins his fourth year with the Georgia Tech football program as a graduate assistant coach, working primarily with the offense.

Before coming to Atlanta in 2011, Pehrson worked one spring as a graduate assistant at Lamar University. In the fall of 2010, he served as outside linebackers coach and assistant tight ends coach at Houston Christian High School in Texas.

Growing up in Annapolis, Md., Pehrson was an all-state performer in both football and baseball at Broadneck High School. After high school, Pehrson attended Jacksonville University for two years and played two seasons with the Dolphins baseball team. He then transferred to the University of Texas for one year before finishing his college career at Towson University.

Pehrson earned his degree in sports management with a minor in business from Towson University in 2009.

In 2007, Pehrson was taken in the 47th round of the Major League Baseball Draft by the Baltimore Orioles and played two years in the minor leagues.

Born Sept. 25, 1984, in Salt Lake City, Pehrson and wife, Kim, reside in Atlanta.

KEVIN REDDY

Staff Assistant
1st season at Tech
Georgia Gwinnett College '13

Kevin Reddy, an assistant coach at a highly successful local high school football program for six years, joned the Georgia Tech staff in March.

Reddy helped coach linebackers and special teams at Buford High School, which won state titles during his tenure in 2008, '09, '10, '12 and '13. The 2011 team finished as the state runner-up. He also served as a special education teacher for the 2013-14 school year.

After a standout career at Brookwood (Ga.) High School, Reddy attended Georgia Southern, where he played on the football team under head coach Brian Van Gorder in 2007.

A native of Snellville (Ga.), Reddy obtained his degree from Georgia Gwinnett College in 2013. He is single and resides in Atlanta.

AAIRON SAVAGE

Graduate Assistant Coach
1st season at Tech
Auburn '08

Aairon Savage, who played defensive back at Auburn from 2005-10 and was a part of the Tigers' run to the '10 national championship, is in his first season as a Georgia Tech graduate assistant coach.

Savage will work with the Yellow Jacket defense, specifically with the safeties.

In 2013, Savage was an assistant coach at Valdosta High School, where he was also a ninth-grade teacher.

The previous two years, Savage was on the staff at Auburn. He was part of quality control in 2011 and was a graduate assistant in 2012.

Savage was a Freshman All-SEC and Freshman All-American (Rivals) defensive back in 2006. He missed all of the 2008 and 2009 seasons with injuries. In the national title season of 2010, Savage started the first seven games before a season-ending injury.

Savage earned his undergraduate degree from Auburn in 2008, and his Master's in 2010.

STEVEN SYLVESTER

@s_sylvest34
Graduate Assistant Coach
2nd season at Tech
Georgia Tech '11

Steven Sylvester, a former standout linebacker for Georgia Tech under head coach Paul Johnson, is in his second season as a Yellow Jacket graduate assistant coach.

Sylvester works closely with assistant coach Bryan Cook in coaching the B-backs.

As a player at Tech, Sylvester played in 52 career games, recorded 154 tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss, seven sacks and he caused four fumbles. He played as a true freshman in 2008 and was an instrumental part of the 2009 team that played in the ACC Championship Game and in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

Sylvester served as a team captain as a senior in 2011.

A native of McDonough (Ga.), Sylvester was an all-star performer at Union Grove High School.

Sylvester is a 2011 Georgia Tech graduate with a degree in science, technology and culture. Born October 18, 1989 in Enterprise, Ala., Sylvester is single and lives in Atlanta.

CHRIS BREEN

Director of Academics
4th season at Tech
Fordham '02

Chris Breen, who serves as Georgia Tech's Director of Academics, enters his fourth year on the Flats.

Breen came to Tech after spending five years as Associate Director of Academic Support for Student Athletes at Seton Hall University, working specifically with the men's basketball team. Breen received the President's Award for Student Service in May 2010 from Seton Hall.

Breen earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Fordham University in 2002, where he played linebacker and was captain of the 2001 football team. He also coached linebackers for two seasons at Fordham following graduation, and helped his alma mater win the Patriot League in 2002. Breen completed his Master's Degree in Counseling in 2006.

He attended the same university as Vince Lombardi and the "Seven Blocks of Granite". He has spent nine-plus years working in the academics support field, and 11 years in higher education.

Breen currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia. He was married to Lauren Dragona on May 31st.

TOM CONNER

Equipment Manager
23rd season at Tech
Alabama '80

A familiar face in the Georgia Tech Athletic Association, Tom Conner is in his 23rd season as Georgia Tech's Equipment Manager.

A certified athletic equipment manager, Conner is responsible for procuring and maintaining all equipment and uniforms for the football program and also assists in ordering gear for Tech's other sports programs.

Conner came to Tech in 1992 after four years as the equipment manager at the United States Naval Academy. He also has experience at the professional level after serving four years (1982-86) as the head equipment manager for the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League.

He then worked one year (1987) as assistant equipment manager at Duke University before moving to Navy in 1988. Conner also spent two years as assistant equipment manager at the University of Missouri.

Conner earned his bachelor of science degree in physical education in 1980 from the University of Alabama, where he worked four years as a student manager for football.

Conner, who completed a two-year seat as a member of the Schutt Manufacturers Advisory Board, was honored as the AEMA District III Equipment Manager of the Year for 1997-98.

A native of Signal Mountain, Tenn., Conner is married to the former Pamela Bushman, and the couple has a 18-year-old son.

MIKE DeGEORGE

@mikedegeorge
Assistant Director of Sports Information
3rd season at Tech
Dayton '05

Mike DeGeorge is in his third year at Georgia Tech as assistant director of sports information. In this role, DeGeorge serves as the primary media contact for the nationally-ranked Yellow Jacket baseball team, the swimming & diving teams and serves as the secondary football contact.

DeGeorge manages the Russ Chandler Stadium Press Box on game day, directs all baseball-related social media and is the liaison between the baseball program and the local and national media.

He is a member of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, the Football Writers Association of America and CoSIDA.

DeGeorge came to Georgia Tech after spending five years as the assistant director of athletic public relations at the University of Richmond.

During his time with the Spiders, DeGeorge was the primary contact for the nationally-ranked football team, which won the 2008 Division I National Championship. He also served as the media contact for baseball, men's and women's golf and women's swimming and diving.

Prior to his arrival at Richmond, DeGeorge was a sports information assistant at Xavier University in Cincinnati.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., DeGeorge earned a bachelor's degree at the University of Dayton and worked in the Flyers' athletics communication office for four years.

JOE HAMILTON

@joeham14
Recruiting Assistant
2nd season at Tech
Georgia Tech '08

Joe Hamilton, one of the all-time greats in Georgia Tech football history, begins his second season at his alma mater as a recruiting assistant.

Hamilton enjoyed a spectacular career as a four-year starter at quarterback for the Yellow Jackets from 1996-99. Georgia Tech's all-time leader in total offense (10,640 yards), Hamilton won the prestigious Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback and finished second to Wisconsin's Ron Dayne in the voting for the 1999 Heisman Trophy.

Playing under then-head coach George O'Leary, Hamilton guided Tech to consecutive bowl victories and back-to-back wins over in-state rival Georgia. He set ACC career records for total offense, touchdown passes and total touchdowns.

Hamilton was selected in the 2000 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay and spent three seasons with the Buccaneers. He also played in NFL Europe with Franfurt and in the Arena Football League with Orlando.

Hamilton returned to his alma mater after serving the previous two years as an assistant coach under Bill Curry at Georgia State.

Todd McCarthy enters his 17th season at Georgia Tech as Director of Video Operations after joining the Tech staff in the spring of 1998.

McCarthy handles all practice, game and opponents' video for the coaching staff while overseeing Tech's video operations.

In 2005, the Tech Video Department received the SAVVY Award from the Collegiate Sports Video Association for the nation's top highlight video. McCarthy is a five-time winner of the ACC Video Director of the Year Award (2001, 2003, 2004, 2009 and 2010).

McCarthy spent two years (1996-98) as Director of Sports Video at the University of Pittsburgh and three years (1993-96) in the same capacity at the University of Richmond. He also worked two years as a videographer and editor in the sports department at WRIC-TV, the ABC affiliate in Richmond, Va.

McCarthy earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from Virginia Commonwealth University in 1992.

A native of Richmond, Va., McCarthy is married to the former Elizabeth Knupp and they reside in Smyrna, Ga. The couple have one child, Nicholas, born in 2012.

DERRICK MOORE

@DerrickMooreNFL
Team Chaplain/ Developmental Coach
14th season at Tech
Northeastern State '92

Derrick Moore, Georgia Tech's team chaplain and developmental coach for 13 years, is a well-known public speaker, author and former NFL player.

Moore wears many hats in his role at Tech, serving as a spiritual leader, a motivator and a counselor for Yellow Jacket student-athletes. He helps provide assistant in the areas of leadership, team building, relationship development and personal fulfillment. His pre-game motivational speeches have been well-documented on YouTube.

Moore played in the NFL from 1992 through 1997 with the Atlanta Falcons, Detroit Lions and Carolina Panthers. With the Lions, Moore played alongside Hall of Fame running back Barry Sanders. As a starter for the Panthers, Moore holds the expansion rushing record for a running back.

An All-American at Northeastern State in Oklahoma, Moore set the NAIA single-season rushing record in 1991. At Northeastern State, Moore was given the unique opportunity to be the keynote speaker at his own graduation in 1992.

Following his senior season, Moore was the Most Valuable Player in both the Hula Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star games.

Born October 13, 1967 in Albany (Ga.), Moore is married to wife, Stephanie, who has written more than 35 books. The couple are the proud parents of three children.

JAY SHOOP

Director of Sports Medicine
26th season at Tech
East Tennessee State '70

Jay Shoop, a 45-year veteran of the sports medicine profession, returned to Georgia Tech in 2002 as director of sports medicine after a year as head trainer for the Detroit Lions.

Shoop, who oversees all areas of the sports medicine program for the Yellow Jackets' 17 varsity sports, previously served as Tech's director of sports medicine and head trainer from 1987-1999.

Shoop, 66, first came to Tech in 1987 after a two-year stint as head trainer for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He also served two years (1983-84) as head trainer of the Michigan Panthers of the USFL, and seven seasons as an assistant trainer for the Atlanta Falcons.

A native of Wise, Va., Shoop earned a B.S. degree from East Tennessee State University in 1970 and a master's degree in 1976 from Furman, where he was head trainer for six years (1970-76).

Shoop served as the chief trainer for the Olympic Village for the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and as the head trainer for the 1994 Goodwill Games in St. Petersburg, Russia.

An avid collector of historical sports memorabilia, Shoop authored the official history of the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association in 1988. He was inducted into the NATA Hall of Fame in 2012.

Shoop is married to the former Anne Brockman. The couple has two children: Farrah, a Tech graduate and husband Corey Gamel, and Lynn and wife Meredith. The Shoops have five grandchildren, Logan, Summer, Owen, Bree and Catherine Rose.

JOHN SISK

Director of Player Development
3rd season at Tech
Western Carolina '93

John Sisk, who has a wealth of experience with more than two decades in the profession, enters his third year as Georgia Tech's Director of Player Development.

Sisk, who oversees the player development staff that works with more than 350 Yellow Jacket student-athletes, works directly with the football program.

Sisk came to Georgia Tech after serving one season as Director of Strength Training & Conditioning at Furman. A 20-year veteran in the profession, Sisk served as the Director of Speed, Strength and Conditioning at Vanderbilt from 2001-2010.

While at Vanderbilt, Sisk and his staff contributed to the football program's turnaround, which culminated in the Commodores' 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl victory over Boston College. He coached four Vandy strength and conditioning All-Americans, including current Chicago Bears quarterback Jay Cutler. Cutler and Bears' offensive linemen Chris Williams were two National Football League first-round draft picks to progress through Sisk's strength training program at Vandy.

All told, Sisk directed the strength training regimen for 12 Vanderbilt players who signed NFL contracts, as well as four Major League Baseball first-round draft picks, including No. 1 selection David Price (Tampa Bay, 2007), No. 2 selection Pedro Alvarez (Pittsburgh, 2008), No. 7 selection Mike Minor (Atlanta, 2009), and No. 8 pick Casey Weathers (Colorado, 2007).

Sisk first worked in college athletics as assistant strength coach at Furman in 1993 before serving as strength and conditioning coach at Western Carolina. He went on to work on the staff at Clemson before taking the director's job at Vanderbilt in 2001.

A Waynesville (N.C.) native, Sisk played football at Western Carolina, graduating with a degree in sports administration. Upon graduating, he spent three years as a football/strength coach at Tuscola (N.C.) High School.

In 2011, Sisk was one of eight recognized as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach (MSCC) by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association.

MARK SMITH

Assistant Athletic Trainer
2nd season at Tech
SUNY-Brockport '10

Mark Smith is in his second season as an assistant athletic trainer at Georgia Tech, where he works with director of sports medicine Jay Shoop in the day to day care of Yellow Jacket football student-athletes.

Smith came to Georgia Tech after a short stint as an assistant athletic trainer at Georgia State in the spring of 2013. He recently completed an internship with the Buffalo Bills of the NFL. In the summer of 2010, Smith performed an athletic training internship with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Smith is familiar with Georgia Tech, having served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer on the Flats from 2010-2012. His duties were primarily working with swimming & diving and assisting with football.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Smith earned his B.S. in athletic training from The College at Brockport, a State University of New York, in 2010.

PUNT WINDHAM

Assistant Equipment Manager
12th season at Tech
Georgia Tech '94

Punt Windham, coordinator of football equipment, begins his 12th season at Georgia Tech, his alma mater.

Windham, a certified equipment manager, handles the day-to-day operations of the football equipment room including handling and ordering equipment and uniforms, maintenance of equipment and travel logistics of the equipment.

Since coming back to his alma mater in 2003, Windham has been a part of 11 straight bowl appearances with the Yellow Jackets.

Prior to working at Georgia Tech, Windham served eight years at the University of Texas, where he served as head baseball equipment manager and assistant football equipment manger.

While in Austin, Windham worked with the Longhorn baseball team that captured the 2002 NCAA championship and also appeared in the 2000 College World Series.

Windham graduated from Georgia Tech in 1994 with a degree in industrial engineering. He worked as a student manager for the Yellow Jacket football team, which captured a share of the national championship in 1990.

Windham, 42, grew up in Lilburn, Ga., Windham and wife, Kim, were married in 2010.

DR. AARON KING

Celebrating 50 years with the Yellow Jackets

Dr. Aaron King made his first mouthpiece for a Georgia Tech football player in 1960, back before the mouthpiece became a mandatory piece of equipment. Five years later he became the official team dentist for the Yellow Jacket football and men's basketball programs.

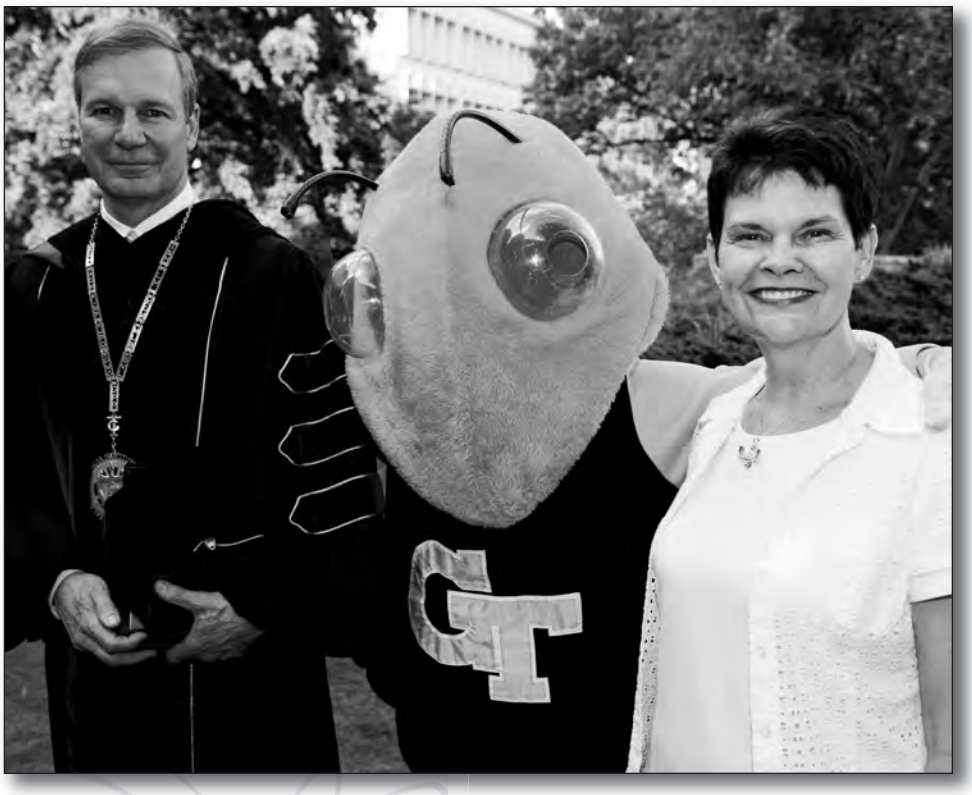
King, who was inducted into the Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame in 2004, has been an integral part of Yellow Jacket athletics -- a fixture on the sidelines at Bobby Dodd Stadium and on the bench at Alexander Memorial Coliseum and McCamish Pavilion.

He has worked with legendary Tech head coaches including Bobby Dodd, Whack Hyder, Dwayne Morrison, Bobby Cremins, Bobby Ross, George O'Leary, Paul Johnson and others.

In addition to his successful private practice, King has provided nearly 6,000 mouthpieces for football and men's basketball since his association with Tech began. He has been on the Tech sideline for nearly 2,000 football and basketball games, not to mention countless hours of practices in both sports. King is the only person affiliated with the Athletic Association to be on the sideline for Tech's 1990 Football National Championship and on the bench for both of Tech's Final Four appearances in men's basketball (1990, 2004).

DR. G.P. "BUD" PETERSON

Institute President
6th Year at Tech



Since assuming the role of Georgia Tech's 11th president, Dr. G. P. "Bud" Peterson has championed efforts to strengthen the Institute's national leadership position in innovation, expanded strategic partnerships, and worked to maximize Georgia Tech's impact in the state, region, nation, and the world.

Upon his arrival in April of 2009, Peterson engaged the Georgia Tech community in developing and implementing a 25-year strategic plan, Designing the Future, and launched the public phase of Campaign Georgia Tech. The $1.5 billion capital campaign is scheduled to run through December 31, 2015. Through the generosity of Georgia Tech alumni and many other supporters, more than $1.4 billion has been raised to provide resources to support endowed chairs and professorships, support construction of new and renovation of existing facilities, and provide scholarships and fellowships for undergraduate and graduate students.

In the past five years, new facilities on campus include the Marcus Nanotechnology Building, the Zelnak Basketball Center, the Clough Undergraduate Learning Commons, the John and Mary Brock Football Practice Facility, McCamish Pavilion, the Carbon-Neutral Energy Solutions Laboratory and the Ken Byers Tennis Complex. In addition, major renovations have been completed to the Stephen Hall Building, the Mason Building and the Chapin Building. Construction is well underway on the Engineered Biosystems Building, which is slated for completion in spring 2015. This new facility will extend Tech's vision for interdisciplinary research, allowing our faculty, researchers and students to address many of today's greatest challenges in biomedical science and human health.

Last year the Institute celebrated the tenth anniversary of Technology Square, a multiuse development that has spurred the evolution of a renowned innovation ecosystem, creating a home for the innovation centers for a number of multinational firms, including AT&T mobility, ThyssenKrupp, Panasonic, Penguin Computing and many others. Tech Square and the North Avenue Research Area (NARA) are creating an exciting environment where innovation can flourish, new technologies developed, new companies started and new jobs created.

With research and education collaborations in more than 80 countries, Georgia Tech has dramatically expanded its global reach and impact. Today, more than 46 percent of undergraduates participate in a meaningful international experience before graduation. This past May the Institute Lafayette opened on the Georgia Tech-Lorraine campus in Metz, France, providing a new resource for industry and academic research. Georgia Tech's research strategy focuses on creating transformative opportunities, strengthening collaboration, and maximizing economic and societal impact. With more than $730 million in research expenditures this past year, Georgia Tech is among the top 10 research universities without a medical school.

Peterson has championed the G. Wayne Clough Georgia Tech Promise program, working to increase corporate and individual support. The Tech Promise provides a full scholarship for Georgia residents, whose family income is less than $33,000/year, placing Tech education within reach of nearly every qualified Georgia resident. This past year more than 220 students, with an average family income of less than $21,000/year were supported by the program. More than 600 students have benefited from the program and graduated essentially debt free, since its inception in 2007.

Throughout his career, Peterson has played an active role in helping establish the national education and research agendas, serving on numerous industry, government and academic task forces and committees. A distinguished scientist, he was appointed in 2008 by President George W. Bush to serve on the National Science Board, which oversees the National Science Foundation and advises the President and Congress on national policy related to science and engineering research and education. In 2011, President Barack Obama appointed him to the Advanced Manufacturing Partnership steering committee and in September 2013 President Obama appointed him to the AMP 2.0 steering committee. Under his leadership, Georgia Tech joined the prestigious Association of American Universities (AAU) in 2010, becoming the first university in 10 years to be invited to membership.

Peterson is a fellow of both the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA), and received the AIAA Distinguished Service Award in 2011. His research has focused on phase-change heat transfer in both the cooling of electronic devices and spacecraft thermal control. He is widely published, authoring or co-authoring 16 books or book chapters, 210 refereed journal articles, and more than 170 conference publications. He also holds nine patents with two others pending.

Peterson came to Georgia Tech from the University of Colorado at Boulder, where he served as chancellor. Prior to that, he served as provost at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in New York; on the faculty and in leadership positions at Texas A&M University for 19 years; and at both NASA and the National Science Foundation (NSF). He earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering, a second bachelor's degree in mathematics, and a master's degree in engineering, all from Kansas State University, and a Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M University. While at Kansas State he lettered three years as a tight end/wide receiver for the Wildcats football team.

President Peterson and Georgia Tech's first lady, Val Peterson, are tireless ambassadors for Georgia Tech. He regularly speaks to government, business and industry, and community leaders, as well as to civic and community groups, faculty, staff, students, and alumni. This past summer the Petersons made their sixth annual tour of Georgia, meeting with businesses, newspaper editorial boards, government leaders and alumni groups. Their Georgia tours have covered more than 4,000 miles, visiting friends and leaders in 34 cities and nearly every county throughout the state.

The Petersons have four adult children, two of whom are Tech alumni and were foster parents to nine children.

MIKE BOBINSKI

@GaTechAD
Director of Athletics
2nd year at Tech
Notre Dame '79

Mike Bobinski, who successfully directed athletic departments at Akron and Xavier for a combined 20 years and has worked as a collegiate athletics administrator for 30 years, embarks on his second year as director of athletics at the Georgia Institute of Technology.

Bobinski oversees an athletic department that includes 17 NCAA Division I varsity sports and is rich with athletic tradition and success.

Just the eighth Georgia Tech director of athletics over the past 110 years, Bobinski joins the likes of John Heisman, William Alexander, Bobby Dodd and Homer Rice who have served in the role previously.

Bobinski, whose tenure officially began April 1, 2013, served as chair of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for the 2012-13 season. That successful role concluded with the 2013 Final Four, which coincidentally was held in Atlanta.

Bobinski came to Georgia Tech after serving 12 years as director of athletics at Cincinnati's Xavier University, where he also served as associate vice president. He was hired as the Musketeers' director of athletics in 1998 and remained in the role until 2004, when he was named associate vice president for development and oversaw all of the university's fundraising efforts, including major gifts, grant services and annual and planned giving. He returned as athletic director in 2006.

"We are very pleased to welcome Mike Bobinski to Georgia Tech as our new director of athletics," Georgia Tech president Dr. G.P. "Bud" Peterson said upon his hiring. "Mike's proven record of success and his diverse background in sports, finance and development, as well as his unwavering commitment to student-athletes, make him the ideal person to lead our athletic program."

At Xavier, Bobinski headed an athletic program that strived to excel in the classroom as well as on the playing fields and courts. In 2012, Xavier ranked 11th nationally in Division I Graduation Success Rates at 97 percent. In June of 2012, the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics named Bobinski the Under Armour Division I Northeast Athletic Director of the Year.

During his tenure, nine of Xavier's teams and numerous individuals competed in NCAA championship competitions. That includes men's basketball, which reached at least the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in four of the last six years. In the same time span, 25 Xavier teams captured Atlantic 10 Conference championships.

In men's basketball, Xavier averaged 25 wins over Bobinski's 12 years, and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament 10 times. The Musketeers advanced to the Elite Eight in 2004 and 2008. In addition, men's basket¬ball extended its streak to 88 straight seniors that graduated. Women's basketball made runs to the NCAA Elite Eight in 2001 and again in 2010 and in 2011 achieved its highest national ranking in program history at No. 4.

In 2009, Bobinski hired Chris Mack as men's basketball head coach. He also hired Thad Matta as head men's basketball coach in 2001 and Sean Miller as Xavier's first associate head coach. Matta is now head coach at Ohio State and Miller has since taken over as head coach at Arizona. Bobinski also hired former women's basketball coach Kevin McGuff, who spent nine years at Xavier and is now head coach at Ohio State. He also oversaw the opening of The Cintas Center and other significant facility projects, including upgrades to soccer and baseball venues and the development of a golf practice facility.

Prior to joining Xavier, Bobinski served as the University of Akron's athletic director from 1994 to 1998. From 1989 to 1994, he was the associate director of athletics at the U.S. Naval Academy. Prior to that, Bobinski served as the associate and assistant business manager at the University of Notre Dame from 1984 to 1989.

As a licensed certified public accountant, he first went into accounting with Deloitte, Haskins and Sell and Arthur Young & Company from 1979-82. He also worked for the Walt Disney Company in Orlando from 1982-84 before moving into college athletics at UND in 1984.

Bobinski was hired at Georgia Tech following a three-month, nationwide search. A seven-member committee led by Stephen P. Zelnak Jr. advised Peterson and identified candidates. Bobinski took over for Dan Radakovich, who resigned in November (2012).

A native of Yaphank on Long Island, N.Y., Bobinski received his bachelor of business administration from Notre Dame in 1979, graduating magna cum laude, while playing four years for the Fighting Irish baseball team.

Bobinski has two children, Melissa, a 2009 Xavier graduate, and Brian, a 2012 Ohio State graduate.

RYAN BAMFORD

@GTbammer24
Senior Associate Athletic Director
4th year at Tech
Ithaca '00

Ryan Bamford, who worked in a variety of roles at Yale University for eight-plus years, begins his fourth year as a key administrator in the Georgia Tech athletics department.

Bamford was promoted from Associate Athletic Director to Senior Associate Athletic Director in June, 2013.

Bamford is responsible for the Athletic Association operational aspects of football, baseball and men's basketball. Other departments which report to him include sports medicine, player performance, facilities, equipment and game operations.

At Yale, Bamford served as Senior Associate Director of Athletics since 2007, supervising Bulldog sports including football, men's basketball, and men's and women's fencing. He coordinated internal operations for an athletic program with 35 varsity sports. Bamford was responsible for overseeing Yale's event management team, equipment operations, and the sports medicine and strength and conditioning units. In addition, he oversaw intercollegiate scheduling, game contract administration and team support services.

Bamford has served on a number of NCAA and Ivy League committees, including four years on the NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse Committee, which he chaired in 2009 and 2010.

Prior to working at Yale, Bamford worked in the athletic department at Springfield College (2000-02). He has also previously served at the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), Octagon Sports Marketing, Plymouth State University and the University of New Hampshire.

A 2000 graduate of Ithaca College, Bamford was a standout basketball player for the Bombers. He left Ithaca as the school's all-time leader in single-season and career three-point field goals while finishing 13th on the career scoring list.

Bamford is single and resides in Atlanta.

REGINALD DesROCHES

Faculty Athletics Representative
1st year in role
15th year at Tech
California '90

Reginald DesRoches, civil and environmental engineering professor and chair, was named Georgia Tech's Faculty Athletic Representative in May.

DesRoches will serve as the liaison between the Institute and the Athletics Association on issues regarding rules compliance activities, new developments at the NCAA, and activities related to Atlantic Coast Conference membership.

DesRoches replaces Sue Ann Bidstrup Allen, who stepped down earlier this year after serving four years in the role of FAR.

For the past two years, DesRoches has been one of six faculty representatives on the Athletic Association's Board of Trustees.

"Student-athletes have unique needs and challenges in successfully balancing their academic and athletic responsibilities," President Dr. G.P. "Bud" Peterson said. "Reggie's role is an essential part of maintaining an environment that fully supports our student-athletes, while acting as an Institute representative with the NCAA and ACC."

The FAR makes an annual presentation to the Faculty Executive Committee and Academic Senate on the status of the Institute's intercollegiate athletics program, covering contributions to the educational mission of the Institute; statistical information on the academic performance of the participants in the programs; compliance with all institutional, conference, and NCAA regulations; and any matters of concern in the planning and implementation of athletic programs as they relate to the best interests of the Institute.

Since joining Tech's faculty in 1998, DesRoches has pursued research interests in the design of buildings and critical infrastructure subjected to extreme loads, seismic risk assessment of transportation systems, and application of smart materials in seismic-resistant design and retrofit. He has a particular interest in mitigating the impacts of earthquakes in the Caribbean and western Africa. He was named Karen and John Huff School Chair of Civil and Environmental Engineering in 2012.

DesRoches holds undergraduate (1990), Masters (1993) and a PhD. (1998) from the University of California, Bereley.

2013 NOTEBOOK

• Georgia Tech finished the 2013 season with a 7-6 record, 5-3 in the ACC, and played in a bowl game for the 17th consecutive season to extend the nation's third-longest streak.

• The Yellow Jackets were the nation's sixth-best rushing team at 299.3 yards per game and have rushed for more yards than any FBS team since 2008.

• Georgia Tech appeared in a bowl game for the 42nd time -- 17th consecutive -- and its .548 bowl winning percentage is ninth-best among teams with at least 25 appearances.

• Tech finished at .500 or better for 19th consecutive season in conference play to extend the nation's longest such streak.

• With 12.5 sacks in 2013, senior All-American DE Jeremiah Attaochu finished sixth nationally in the category and set Georgia Tech's all-time sacks record with 31.5 in his standout career. Attaochu accumulated 10.5 sacks over the final six games of the season, including four versus Georgia.

• Senior A-back Robert Godhigh was one of the nation's best big-play threats as his 15 plays from scrimmage of 30 yards or longer were fourth-most nationally. The 5-foot-7 former walk-on was named the 2013 recipient of the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award, which is presented annually to the league's most courageous player.

• Godhigh logged 1,215 yards from scrimmage (744 rush, 471 catch) and his average of 11.9 yards per play led all running backs in the FBS. Of his 102 touches, 55 percent resulted in first downs or touchdowns.

• Five Tech players earned All-ACC honors from the media, including OG Shaq Mason (first team) and DE Jeremiah Attaochu (second team). Running backs David Sims and Robert Godhigh and OG Will Jackson earned honorable mention honors.

• On the coaches' All-ACC team, Attaochu was first team, Mason third team and Sims honorable mention.

• Georgia Tech ranked in the top 10 nationally in eight different statistical categories.

• The Yellow Jackets led the nation in yards per pass completion (18.42), a full 1.5 yards better than second-place Baylor.

• Tech finished tied for fourth nationally in third-down percentage (.514) behind only LSU, Louisville and Florida State. Only eight FBS teams had third-down percentages better than .500.

• Tech blocked three punts in 2013 – all by Chris Milton. North Texas was the only FBS team with more blocked punts.

• The Jackets blocked five kicks – three punts, one field goal and one PAT. Only four FBS teams blocked more kicks in 2013.

• Tech had more rushing attempts (808) than any team in the country.

• The Yellow Jackets tied Oregon for the most rushing touchdownsv(48) nationally.

• Tech produced 41 rushing plays of 20 yards or more. Only Oregon (43 plays) had more in 2013.

• Tech's six losses were to teams that were all bowl eligible with a combined record of 52-26. Five of the teams were either ranked or receiving votes in at least one of the final top 25 polls.

• The Jackets faced 10 bowl-eligible teams.

• Tech's scoring average of 35.1 points per game was the third-highest in the modern era (since 1950). The school's modern record is 40.7 ppg in 1999.

• Georgia Tech, Ohio State and Wisconsin were the only teams in the nation to rank in the top 11 nationally in both rushing offense and rushing defense. The Jackets were sixth in rush offense and 11th in rush defense.

• Tech began the season 3-0, marking the second 3-0 start in the last three years, but just the third in the last 12 years. Tech started 2-0 in the ACC for the second time under Paul Johnson (2011).

• The Jackets defeated Elon 70-0, Syracuse 56-0 and Alabama A&M 66-7 to move Paul Johnson to 20-0 at Tech when surpassing 40 points.

• The shutouts to Elon and Syracuse marked the first since 2008 -- and marked the first time since 1985 that Tech recorded two shutouts in the same season.

• Tech's 38-14 win at Duke was the Jackets' 10th consecutive win in the series.

• Overcoming two different 13-point deficits, Tech defeated UNC, 28-20 -- its fifth straight win over the Heels.

• Tech scored 136 points through its first three games in 2013 -- the second-most through three games over the program's last 50 seasons.

• After averaging 6.0 penalties over the first six games of the season, Georgia Tech was flagged just 3.7 times per games over the final six games (the second-fewest penalties in the ACC over that span).

• Tech led Miami 17-0 in the first quarter, and was within one (24-23) in the fourth quarter before three straight Hurricane touchdowns.

• Tech's margin of victory in the Syracuse win (56-0) was its largest ever in an ACC game.

• Tech amassed more than 400 yards of total

Jeremiah Attaochu left Georgia Tech as the school's all-time career sacks leader.

offense in 10 of the 13 games -- only Virginia Tech (273), Pitt (360) and Ole Miss (298) held Tech below 400.

• Zach Laskey (133), Robert Godhigh (111) and David Sims (107) all rushed for 100 yards in the Virginia win – the first time in modern Georgia Tech history (since 1950) that three different Yellow Jackets have rushed for 100 yards.

• The Jackets beat both of the ACC's newcomers – Pitt and Syracuse – by a combined score of 77-10.

• Godhigh racked up 229 all-purpose yards at Clemson (126 rushing, 103 receiving) and became the first Jacket since Orwin Smith in 2011 to rush and receive for 100 yards in a game.

• In the regular-season finale, Tech jumped on Georgia 20-0 early and led 27-17 in the fourth before surrendering the lead and falling in double overtime.

• Jeremiah Attaochu's four sacks against Georgia were the third-most singlegame sacks in Georgia Tech history.

• Attaochu joined elite Yellow Jacket company by being named third-team All-America by both the Associated Press and CBS Sports. Attaochu was also named honorable mention All-America by SI.com. He is the third defensive end under Paul Johnson to earn All-America honors -- joining Derrick Morgan and Michael Johnson, who are both currently in the NFL.

• Tech's defense allowed 38 touchdowns, 13 fewer than the Yellow Jackets allowed in 2012.

• Tech's defense allowed just nine running plays of 20 yards or more all season.

• Even though Tech finished the season with a minus-five differential in turnover margin, the Yellow Jackets were remarkably plus-33 in points off turnover scoring. Tech's offense scored points 15 times following a takeaway (14 touchdowns), while the defense allowed just 11 scores (nine touchdowns) following a giveaway.

TECH FOOTBALL TIMELINE

November 5

1892

Georgia Tech's first ever football game came against Mercer on November 5, 1892. Mercer won the game, played at Macon's Central Park, 12-6.

The Yellow Jackets went 0-3 in their inaugural season, also losing to Vanderbilt an d Auburn.

▶1892: Georgia Tech's first football team.

▶1893: Lt. Wood

1893

Lt. Leonard Wood was a star quarterback and co-head coach on the 1893 team that played -- and beat -- rival Georgia for the first time, 28-6, in Athens. After the 1894 season Wood was assigned to Ft. McPherson and he went on to win the Congressional Medal of Honor for participating in the Indian wars against Geronimo. He then was the colonel who formed the volunteer brigade called the Rough Riders during the Spanish American War (Teddy Roosevelt gets the credit but was the Lt. Colonel under Wood). He later went to Washington when Roosevelt became President and served in a variety of roles, including Army Chief of Staff. In 1920, he unsuccessfully ran as a Republican for U.S. President.

1901

Georgia Tech's first unbeaten team was in 1901. After going winless from 1897-1900, the Yellow Jackets went 4-0-1 in 1901, shutting out four opponents and tying Furman, 5-5.

1904

John Heisman took over as Georgia Tech's head football coach. He coached 16 seasons, compiling a remarkable 102-29-7 (.779) record, including four unbeaten campaigns. Heisman's original contract called for him to coach the football and baseball teams for a paultry sum of $2,250 (less $500 for supplies), plus 30 percent of the gate receipts.

▶1904: John Heisman

1908

After playing its home games at Piedmont Park, Brisbine Park and briefly on the Flats, Georgia Tech played home games at Ponce de Leon Park from 1908 to 1911.

1913

Upon his hiring in 1904, John Heisman desired for Georgia Tech to play home games in an on-campus statium. In 1905, Heisman had 300 convict laborers clear rocks, remove tree stumps and level the field. Tech first played home games on the Flats in '05. Later, John W. Grant donated $15,000 towards the construction of the field's first permanent stands, and Grant Field was named in honor of his deceased son, Hugh Inman Grant. Tech permanently began playing its home games on Grant Field in 1913.

▶1913: Grant Field became Tech's permanent home.

October 7

The most lopsided game -- Georgia Tech 222, Cumberland 0 -- of all time happened in Atlanta on Oct. 7, 1916.

The previous spring, Cumberland's baseball team had trounced Tech. Cumberland University was located in Lebanon, Tenn., and the Cumberland squad was actually comprised of professional players from nearby Nashville. Georgia Tech head coach John Heisman was not amused, and the Tech students and alumni howled for revenge, so Heisman offered the Bulldogs a $500 guarantee to come to Atlanta for a football game.

In the game, Tech scored 32 touchdowns, averaged 3.8 points per minute, carried the ball for 978 yards, and never threw a pass. Cumberland, since it was losing yardage faster than it was gaining real estate, began to kick the football back to the Jackets immediately after Tech kicked off to them.

Amazingly, neither team made a first down in the game because Tech scored within four downs on every possession. All-American Everett Strupper led Tech with six touchdowns.

▶1916: The most lopsided game in college football history.

1917

The 1917 Yellow Jacket team claimed a share of Tech's first national championship. Tech went a perfect 9-0, outscoring opponents by a combined score of 491-17.

1920

William Alexander began the first of 25 years as Georgia Tech's head coach, serving from 1920-1944.

1921

Georgia Tech and 13 other schools left the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to form the Southern Conference, which was housed in Atlanta.

The most stunning play in Rose Bowl history propelled Georgia Tech to its first bowl victory when Roy Riegels' infamous Wrong Way Run turned out right as the Rambling Wreck beat California, 8-7, in the 1929 Rose Bowl.

Early in the second quarter, with the score tied 0-0, Tech halfback Stumpy Thomason was hit by the Golden Bears' Benny Lom. He fumbled near the Tech 35-yard line, and Riegels scooped up the bouncing ball. He got a good block from a teammate, slipped off a tackler and spun around. But something was wrong.

"Stop, Roy! You're running the wrong way," yelled Lom. Riegels thought the speedier Lom was asking for a lateral. At the 10-yard line, Lom grabbed Riegels, but Riegels shook him loose. Finally, at the one-yard line, Lom pulled Riegels down, but not before a 64-yard run into immortality.

California still had the ball. On the first play, the Golden Bears attempted to punt the ball out of the end zone with Riegels snapping to Lom. However, Tech's Vance Maree blocked the punt, which rolled out of bounds for a safety.

Both teams traded touchdowns in the second half, and Tech eventually prevailed, 8-7, in one of the strangest games ever played. Tech's Rose Bowl win capped a perfect 10-0 season, the first undefeated season for head coach William Alexander, and the Rambling Wreck captured its second national title.

September 26

1936

The first night game in Georgia Tech football history came on Sept. 26, 1936. The Yellow Jackets trounced visiting Presbyterian, 55-0, under the lights. Ever since, Grant Field / Bobby Dodd Stadium has been considered one of the top night-game atmospheres in all of college football.

January 1

1940

Following the 1939 season, Georgia Tech made the first of five appearances in the Orange Bowl, upsetting Missouri 21-7 on Jan. 1, 1940. Earlier that season, Tech made its first appearance in the Associated Press poll, which began in 1936.

1942

The only retired jersey in Georgia Tech's storied football history is the No. 19 worn by running back Clint Castleberry in 1942. Though just a freshman, he finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting as he led Tech to a 9-2 record, highlighted by historic victories at Notre Dame and Navy and capped by a berth in the Cotton Bowl. Just weeks later, he enlisted in the U.S. Army, and on Nov. 7, 1944, his plane disappeared.

For one fleeting season in 1942, Clint Castleberry blazed across the football field like a 'crazed jackrabbit.' Some said he could have been the greatest Tech player in history, if it weren't for World War II and a plane that disappeared off the West African coast without a trace.

He flashed across the fields at Notre Dame and Navy that fall of '42, leading Georgia Tech's shocking onslaughts, while Sir Bernard Montgomery flashed across North Africa in pursuit of Erwin Rommel, and the Russians made their goal-line stand at Stalingrad.

▶1942: Castleberry.

He had played only one college football game when Notre Dame scout Wayne Millner warned coach Frank Leahy that "the most dangerous runner in America" would invade South Bend.

As a freshman, he finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting.

And then he was gone.

-- Ed Hinton, Atlanta Journal-Constitution

1943

The 8-3 record posted by the 1943 Tech team doesn't give justice to one of the great seasons in Yellow Jacket history. Heading into November with a 3-3 record, Tech reeled off wins over LSU, Tulane, Clemson and a 48-0 win over Georgia to win the SEC championship. A month later, the Jackets beat Tulsa in the Sugar Bowl, becoming the first team to play in all four major bowls (Sugar, Rose, Cotton, Orange).

▶1945: Hall of Fame coach Bobby Dodd.

Legendary coach Bobby Dodd took over as head coach in 1945 and went on to coach 22 seasons. He compiled a record of 165-64-8 (.713). Dodd won two SEC championships and one national title. Dodd is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame as both a player and coach.

1952

Bobby Dodd's 1952 team finished a perfect 12-0, including a win over 7th-ranked and previously undefeated Ole Miss in the Sugar Bowl. Tech, which shared the national crown with Michigan State, shutout four opponents, beat 6th-ranked Duke and 12th-ranked Alabama. The 1952 team included six All-Americans: Pete Brown, Leon Hardeman, Buck Martin, Hal Miller, Bobby Moorhead and George Morris.

▶'52: National champs

1951-55

From 1951-55, Tech played in five consecutive major bowls -- Orange (1951), Sugar (1952, 1953, 1955) and Cotton (1954).

1956

The 1956 team was nearly perfect, going 10-1, losing only to Tennessee (6-0). Tech beat Pittsburgh in the Gator Bowl.

▶'56: Wade Mitchell

▶1962: Celebrating win over No. 1 Alabama.

November 17

1962

Georgia Tech beat Bear Bryant's No. 1-ranked Alabama team, 7-6.

▶1963: Lothridge

1963

Following the 1963 season, Tech left the SEC and played as an independent until joining the ACC in 1979.

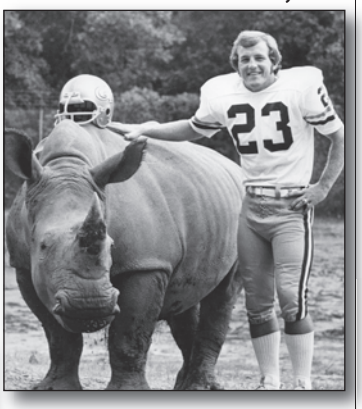
Also in 1963, quarterback Billy Lothridge was first team All-American and finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting. Lothridge also handled kicking and punting duties for the Yellow Jackets, who finished 7-3 with wins over Florida, Clemson, Tennessee, Florida State and Georgia.

1970

Eddie McAshan, the son of a Gainesville (Fla.) mortician, became the first African-American to start at quarterback for a major Southeastern university. McAshan was Tech's starter in 1970, '71 and '72.

▶1970: McAshan

▶1974: Three-time All-American Randy Rhino.



1974

Randy Rhino was a three-time All-American (1972-74). Randy was the second of three generations of Rhinos to play at Tech. Chappell Rhino (1950-52), Danny (1974-76) and Kelley (1999-02) all wore the Gold and White.

1976

Georgia Tech, running the wishbone behind quarterback Gary Lanier, beat 11th-ranked Notre Dame 23-14 despite not attempting a single pass.

1978

With temperatures in the 20s, the wind chill at zero, and with an agitated stomach that nearly sidelined him, Georgia Tech tailback Eddie Lee Ivery made college football history on Nov. 20, 1978 at Air Force.

On 26 rushes, Ivery gained 356 yards, breaking an NCAA record, on a field that required de-snowing by a street sweeper twice before the game.

Complicating Ivery's plight was his stomach. After a nifty reversal of direction, which resulted in a 73-yard TD run in the second quarter giving Tech a 14-0 lead, Ivery was on the sidelines doubled over, vomiting and in obvious pain.

At halftime, Ivery had 122 yards on 12 carries. An 80-yard TD run with 6:08 left in the third quarter gave him 240 yards and broke Brent Cunningham's school record of 217 yards set in 1970. With 10:25 left, Ivery scored on a 57-yard run, giving him 309 yards and putting him within 41 yards of the NCAA record of 350 by Michigan State's Eric Allen vs. Purdue in 1971.

After an Air Force drive fizzled, Ivery ran for 13 yards, then for another 13. Adding to the drama, Ivery's stomach began to churn again, to the extent he had to leave the game. His replacement, Ray Friday, shocked everyone by bolting 66 yards up the middle for his second touchdown of the day.

When LB Henry Johnson intercepted a Falcon pass, Ivery had his chance. He trotted back onto the field and rushed 21 yards with his first carry, giving him the record.

TECH FOOTBALL TIMELINE

1980

In 1980, Bill Curry's first season as head coach, Tech went just 1-9-1. However, the Yellow Jackets' tie (3-3) came against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame. The following year, the Jackets went just 1-10, but the lone victory was a 24-21 win vs. 4th-ranked Alabama.

▶Bill Curry

Although Tech first joined the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1979, the Yellow Jackets first competed for the football championship in 1983.

1985

In 1985, Georgia Tech went 9-2-1 and beat Michigan State in the All-American Bowl -- the Jackets' first bowl win in 15 years. Tech had gone the previous six years with six or less wins. The Yellow Jackets "Black Watch" defense was led by linebacker Ted Roof, who is now Tech's defensive coordinator.

▶1985: Ted Roof

Georgia Tech moved into the Top 25 for the first time in 1990 after it beat 25th-ranked South Carolina to improve to 3-0. Two weeks later, the Jackets knocked off 15th-ranked Clemson to improve to 5-0. Tech moved into the national championship conversation in early November when Scott Sisson's field goal with seven seconds remaining gave the Yellow Jackets a memorable 41-38 win at No. 1 Virginia. Tech closed the regular season by winning on the road against rival Georgia, 41-23, setting the stage for a 45-21 win over Nebraska in the Citrus Bowl. The following day, Tech learned it shared the national title with Colorado.

Georgia Tech played its first ESPN Thursday night game in 1991, beating Virginia, 24-21, at Bobby Dodd Stadium. Since 1991, the Yellow Jackets have played in the nationally-televised Thursday night game 27 times.

1995

Following the 1994 season, the interim tag was removed and George O'Leary was named Georgia Tech's head coach. O'Leary went 18-16 in his first three seasons, but went on to win at least eight games every year from 1998-2001 and played in five bowls.

▶George O'Leary

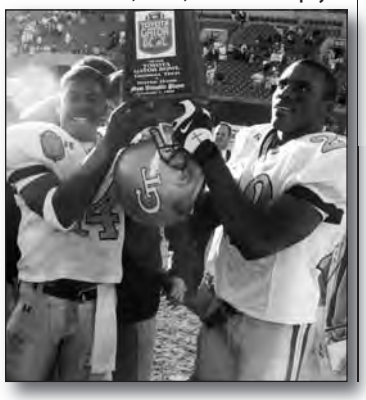
Georgia Tech finished 7-1 in the ACC, earning a share of the league title with Florida State. Tech finished 10-2 overall, beat Georgia (21-19) and knocked off Notre Dame in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

▶1998: Hamilton, White, Gator Bowl trophy.



▶1999: Manget's game-winner vs. Georgia.

November 27

1999

Luke Manget's field goal in overtime gave Tech an unforgettable 51-48 win over Georgia. The Jacket fans went nuts and carried Joe Hamilton on their shoulders.

Following the 1999 season, Joe Hamilton finished second in the Heisman Trophy race and won the Davey O'Brien Award.

August 27

2000

The 2000 season opener was cancelled because of a storm at Virginia Tech, but the Jackets won their final seven regular season games including a win in Athens between the hedges.

2006

As a junior, Calvin Johnson was one of college football's most dominant players. He hauled in 76 passes for a school record 1,202 yards and 15 TDs. Johnson led Tech to an ACC Coastal Division crown and he went on to be the second overall pick in the '07 NFL draft by the Detroit Lions.

▶Paul Johnson

2008

The experts predicted Paul Johnson's first season to be a struggle. All Tech did was win nine games and finish tied for first in the ACC's Coastal Division. Along the way, Johnson and his spread option offense won on the road at Clemson, beat Florida State and Miami at home, then closed the regular season with a memorable 45-42 win at rival Georgia after trailing by 16 points.

A remarkable month of November -- wins over Mississippi State, Florida State, 4th-ranked Virginia Tech, Virginia and Vanderbilt -- helped Tech win the ACC Coastal Division and a berth into the FedEx Orange Bowl. Joshua Nesbitt became the most prolific rushing quarterback in ACC history.

▶2013: Attaouch breaks Tech sacks record.

Georgia Tech used the nation's sixth-most prolific rushing attack and an improved defense under former Yellow Jacket great, now defensive coordinator, Ted Roof, to post a winning record and earn a bowl bid for the 17th consecutive season. Tech's bowl game streak ties for the third-longest active streak in college football. Senior Jeremiah Attaochu broke the school record with 31.5 career sacks.

1933-1963	Southeastern Conference. Tech was a founding member. Won or shared five conference crowns.
1964-1979	Major Independent. In 1978, Georgia Tech was one of 33 schools playing as an independent.
1979-Pres.	Atlantic Coast Conference. Tech joined the ACC on April 3, 1978. First eligible for league title in 1982.

The Cumberland Game
On Oct. 17, 1916, John Heisman's team crushed Cumberland College 222-0 in the most lopsided and highest-scoring game in college football history.

The 1929 Rose Bowl
Cal's Roy Riegels ran the wrong way, Tech won 8-7 and claimed its second national championship.

1942: Georgia Tech 13, Notre Dame 6
Tech finally won at Notre Dame for the first time in eight tries, 13-6. Freshman phenom Clint Castleberry threw a touchdown pass in his only season on the Flats, before dying while piloting a plane during World War II.

1949: Georgia Tech 7, Georgia 6
Georgia Tech 7, Georgia 6, the Grant Field victory that started "The Drought," Bobby Dodd's eight-year mastery of Georgia.

1952 Orange Bowl
Georgia Tech 17, Baylor 14. Pepper Rodgers' last-second field goal gave the Jackets an Orange Bowl comeback win over Baylor and an 11-0-1 season.

1952: Georgia Tech 7, Alabama 3
In the most exciting game, at that time, in Tech annals, Jakie Rudolph's "$125,000 tackle" of Bobby Marlow helped preserve the victory, earned Tech a Sugar Bowl bid (and the $125,000 payout) but also preserved the Jackets' 12-0 season and the Institute's third national title.

1962: Georgia Tech 7, Alabama 6
Another epic Grant Field win over Alabama, one Dodd called "my greatest victory." Mike McNames scored Tech's only touchdown and made a game-saving tackle to upset Bear Bryant's unbeaten, No. 1 defending national champs.

1972 Liberty Bowl
Georgia Tech 31, Iowa State 30, in the Liberty Bowl. In Memphis, backup quarterback Jim Stevens -- playing for the suspended Eddie McAshan -- threw for 157 yards and 3 TDs and was named the MVP.

1976: Georgia Tech 23, Notre Dame 14
In the "Passless Upset," the Jackets -- with freshman QB Gary Lanier running Pepper Rodgers' option to perfection -- didn't throw a pass in shocking the Irish.

1978: The Eddie Lee Ivery Game
Georgia Tech 42, Air Force 21. On the frozen tundra in Colorado Springs, Eddie Lee Ivery ran wild for 356 yards, breaking the NCAA single-game rushing record.

1980: Georgia Tech 3, Notre Dame 3
Bill Curry's first team as head coach of the Jackets stunned the unbeaten, No. 1 Irish and nearly beat them before a late, tying field goal.

1984: Georgia Tech 35, Georgia 18
In Athens, this was Bill Curry's turnaround game for the program, one that ended a six-game losing streak to UGA.

1985 All-American Bowl
Georgia Tech 17, Michigan State 14. In the All-American Bowl in Legion Field, Tech prevailed behind its great Black Watch defense and emergency starting QB Todd Rampley.

1989: Georgia Tech 33, Georgia 22
Jerry Mays ran for 207 yards to help complete a remarkable 7-4 Georgia Tech turnaround after an 0-3 start.

1990: Georgia Tech 21, Clemson 19
In one of the many thrilling, physical battles in this rivalry, this stamped Tech as a legitimate national title contender.

1990: Georgia Tech 41, Virginia 38
In Charlottesville, in likely the most significant victory in Tech annals, the Jackets staged a phenomenal comeback against No. 1 Virginia's potent offense. Shawn Jones and William Bell led the resurgence, and Scott Sisson's field goal with 7 seconds left stunned UVA and set off a wild celebration back on The Flats.

1991 Citrus Bowl
Georgia Tech 45, Nebraska 21. In the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Tech toyed with the Huskers. Behind Jones and Bell once again, the Jackets completed an 11-0-1 season and won the UPI Coaches National Championship the next day by one point in the final poll.

1998: Georgia Tech 41, Virginia 38
In another 41-38 thriller, this one in Atlanta, Dez White caught six passes for a school record 243 yards -- the last 54 coming on the game-winning catch to upset No. 6 UVa.

1998: Georgia Tech 21, Georgia 19
In Athens, Brad Chambers' 35-yard field goal in the final seconds ended a seven-game losing streak to UGA.

1999 Gator Bowl
Georgia Tech 35, Notre Dame 28. In the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, White and Joe Hamilton (who threw three TD passes and caught one himself) were co-MVPs, and gave Tech its first 10-win season since 1990 and a final ranking of No. 9.

1999: Georgia Tech 51, Georgia 48 (ot)
In one of the most thrilling game in Bobby Dodd Stadium annals, Joe Hamilton's last home game was triumphant. Luke Manget's second-chance, OT field goal sent Tech fans into euphoria. Many of them carried Hamilton -- who was second in the Heisman Trophy voting that season -- on their shoulders and around the stadium.

2003: Georgia Tech 17, Auburn 3
In the first game in newly-expanded and renovated Bobby Dodd Stadium, a sellout crowd of 55,000 roared as freshman QB Reggie Ball passed for one touchdown and set up two other scores. The crowd later stormed the field and tore down the goal posts.

2004 Humanitarian Bowl
Georgia Tech 52, Tulsa 10. In the Humanitarian Bowl in frigid Boise, Idaho, P.J. Daniels ran for an NCAA bowl-record 307 yards and four touchdowns -- despite playing little in the fourth quarter.

2004: Georgia Tech 28, Clemson 24
In another spine tingler against the Tigers, this one in Death Valley, freshman and eventual ACC Rookie of the Year Calvin Johnson caught two of his three TD receptions in the final 1:50 -- the game-winner from Ball with five seconds left.

2005: Georgia Tech 14, Miami 10
In an upset of the No. 3 Hurricanes, Tashard Choice played for the injured Daniels and was superb. As was the Tech's resolute defense.

2006: Georgia Tech 38, Virginia Tech 27
A year after losing 51-7 in Blacksburg, Tech returned, got a quick start and two first-quarter TD catches from Johnson to win, get revenge and seize control of the ACC's Coastal Division.

2007: Georgia Tech 33, Notre Dame 3
In South Bend, the Yellow Jackets opened the season by handing the Fighting Irish one of their most embarrassing home losses.

2008: Georgia Tech 31, Florida State 28
The Yellow Jackets' first win over the Seminoles since 1975 was decided when true freshman Rashaad Reid recovered FSU fumble in the end zone in final minute.

2008: Georgia Tech 41, Miami 23
In Atlanta, the Yellow Jackets flexed offensive muscle with nationally-televised win over the 23rd-ranked Hurricanes in a "White-Out" at Bobby Dodd Stadium

2008: Georgia Tech 45, Georgia 42
In Athens, Paul Johnson's first Yellow Jacket team overcame 26-12 halftime deficit to break seven-year skid against a Bulldog team that was ranked No. 1 in the preseason. Freshman Roddy Jones ran for 214 yards.

2009: Georgia Tech 28, Virginia Tech 23
Tech's first win at home against a top-five ranked team since 1962. The fans stormed the field and tore down the goal posts in the north end zone.

2009 ACC Championship Game
Georgia Tech 39, Clemson 34 (ACC Championship Game at Tampa) A Yellow Jacket win that has been vacated, but did send Tech to the FedEx Orange Bowl.

2012: Georgia Tech 68, North Carolina 50
In the highest-scoring game in ACC history, visiting Georgia Tech produced 588 yards of total offense, including 380 rushing yards, and Jamal Golden returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown.

CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame
WADE MITCHELL
Inducted in 1996

The Verizon Academic All-America Hall of Fame recognizes former Academic All-America student- athletes who graduated at least 10 years ago and have gone on to great success after athletics. Wade Mitchell became the first Georgia Tech graduate to be inducted in 1996. An Academic All-America in 1955, the former standout quarter- back and safety went on to become a prominent Atlanta banking executive.

^ACC Championship vacated

Paul Johnson is the 12th full-time football coach in Georgia Tech history. Prior to 1904, when John Heisman became the school's first permanent head coach, the team was "coached" by professors, interested townspeople or one of the players.

Professor Ernest E. West, a Naval College graduate, directed Tech's first football team in 1892. In 1893 and '94, the squad was coached by volunteers Frank O. Spain, a Mathematics professor, and Lt. Leonard Wood (who later became famous as the colonel in command of Roosevelt's Rough Riders and as Governor General of Cuba), then stationed at Ft. McPherson in Atlanta. The rules were rather lax in those days, so Spain and Wood also played on the team.

#2009 ACC Championship vacated

Series Notes

After playing on the road two straight seasons, the series returns to Atlanta for the first time since 2011... the Yellow Jackets have beaten the Tigers four straight times in Bobby Dodd Stadium with Clemson's last win coming in 2003... Tech has won seven of the last 11 meetings overall... the Yellow Jackets and Tigers will meet for the seventh time in six seasons including a date in the 2009 ACC Championship Game... Tech has played only Georgia (108 meetings), Auburn (92) and Duke (81) more often than Clemson... the two teams have met at least once each year since 1983... the two teams first met on the gridiron in 1898 -- a 23-0 Clemson win played in Augusta, Ga... from 1905-14 the Jackets and Tigers met every year on Thanksgiving Day... Georgia Tech head coach Paul Johnson is 4-3 all-time against Clemson, including the '09 championship game which was vacated and does not count in Johnson's overall record... Clemson coach Dabo Swinney's first game as the Tigers' head coach was a 21-17 loss to Tech in 2008... Clemson athletic director Dan Radakovich previously worked in the same capacity at Georgia Tech.

Series Notes

Georgia Tech has won the last 10 and 18 of the last 19 meetings... last season Duke became the first team other than Georgia Tech or Virginia Tech to represent the Coastal Division in the ACC Championship Game... the Yellow Jackets have won the last nine meetings in Bobby Dodd Stadium... Duke has not beaten Tech in Atlanta since 1994... the winner of the Tech-Duke game has scored at least 30 points in each of the last five meetings and in eight of the last nine meetings... Georgia Tech has played Duke more often (81 previous meetings) than any other ACC opponent... the two teams first met on the gridiron in 1933 and have met every season since... Tech head coach Paul Johnson is 10-1 all-time against Duke, including a 4-1 record while at Navy and a 6-0 mark at Tech.

Series Notes

The 108 all-time meetings between the two teams make it the 19th-most frequently played series among FBS schools... among rivalries between two in-state teams in separate conferences, it ranks fifth for most games played all time... Georgia is Tech's most-frequently played rival.... UGA has a 30-13-1 series lead in games played in Athens... at least one of the two teams has been nationally ranked in 15 of the last 17 meetings... the winning team has scored at least 30 points in each of the last seven meetings... last year's game was the first double-overtime game in Tech history... the Yellow Jackets and Bulldogs first met on the gridiron in 1893 (28-6 Tech victory)... the two teams have met every season since 1925... Georgia Tech was a member of the SEC from 1933-63 and holds an all-time record of 205-215-24 against teams currently in the SEC.

Series Notes

Georgia Tech has won the last five meetings, including a 28-20 come-from-behind victory last season in Atlanta and a 68-50 shootout in Chapel Hill in 2012... the 2012 game broke several scoring records, including most combined points in an ACC game...Tech has won 14 of the last 16 meetings... the Yellow Jackets have won the last two and three of the last four meetings in Chapel Hill... North Carolina handed Georgia Tech its only blemish to an otherwise perfect record in 1990 when the Tar Heels tied the Yellow Jackets 13-13 in Chapel Hill... Tech finished the season 11-0-1 and earned a share of the national championship... Georgia Tech and UNC first met on the gridiron back in 1915... the two teams met 14 times prior to 1945, then went nearly 30 years without meeting... North Carolina native Paul Johnson is 5-1 all-time vs. the Tar Heels.

Series Notes

Georgia Tech and former SEC rival Tulane will meet for the first time in more than 30 years... the Yellow Jackets and Green Wave were original members of the SEC... Tech will be the first visiting team to play in Tulane's new Yulman Stadium... Tulane has won three of the last four meetings, but the Jackets have won six of the last nine... even though the teams have not met since 1982, Tulane is the seventh-most frequent opponent for Georgia Tech (48 all-time meetings)... the Yellow Jackets are 15-9 all-time against the Green Wave in New Orleans... Tech senior RB Tony Zenon is a Louisiana native who was displaced by Hurricane Katrina... Tech coach Paul Johnson is 2-2 all-time vs. Tulane with all four meetings coming while he was coaching at Navy.

Series Notes

With the Yellow Jackets holding a slim 18-17-1 series edge, the Georgia Tech-Virginia series is one of the closest in the ACC... overall, Tech has won four of the last five, but the two teams have split the last 10 meetings... the Yellow Jackets hold a 14-7 series lead in Atlanta, including two straight wins... the two teams have met every season since 1982... one of Tech's all-time greatest victories was a 41-38 win over Virginia in Charlottesville in 1990 when the Cavaliers were ranked No. 1 nationally... the Jackets went on to win a share of the national championship... the two teams first met on the gridiron in 1965... Georgia Tech won the first six meetings... Tech head coach Paul Johnson is 4-2 all-time vs. Virginia... Tech offensive line coach Mike Sewak is a 1981 Virginia grad and played three years for the Cavaliers.

Series Notes

Last season marked the first time a team other than Georgia Tech or Virginia Tech represented the Coastal Division in the ACC Championship Game since the event began in 2005... the Hokies have won four straight in the series and six of the last seven... the Yellow Jackets only win during that stretch was a 28-23 win over 4th-ranked Virginia Tech in 2009... in each of the last seven meetings, the winning team has scored 28 or fewer points... in the last two meetings, the winning team scored 20 or fewer points... the Hokies beat Tech 20-17 in 2008, handing Paul Johnson his first loss as Georgia Tech's head coach... the two teams will meet on a Saturday for the first time since 2009 after playing three times on Thursday night and once on a Monday night... this will be the 12th meeting between the two teams, the sixth played on a Saturday.... the first meeting between the Jackets and Hokies came in 1990, a 6-3 Georgia Tech win in which Virginia Tech nearly spoiled the Jackets' run to a share of the national championship... Georgia Tech coach Paul Johnson is 1-5 all-time vs. Virginia Tech... Hokies coach Frank Beamer has been on the sidelines for all 11 previous Georgia Tech-Virginia Tech games.

Series Notes

The Yellow Jackets and Terriers, who meet in the season opener for both teams, will meet on the football field for the first time in 113 seasons, since the only previous meeting in 1901... Georgia Tech won the only previous meeting, which was played in Augusta (Ga.), 33-0... Yellow Jacket head coach Paul Johnson is 5-0 all-time vs. Wofford, with all of those meetings coming while coaching at Georgia Southern.
